Standard / Advanced

31. panicked — insert a 'k' before '-ed' to keep the hard 'c' sound.
32. unhappiness — 'un-' at the front gives 'unhappy', and '-ness' at the end gives 'unhappiness'.
33. weird
34. silliness — change the 'y' to 'i' before adding '-ness' because the 'y' follows a consonant.
35. dishonestly — 'dis-' at the front gives 'dishonest', and '-ly' at the end gives 'dishonestly'.
36. C) 'They're going to the shop.' — 'they're' is the contraction of 'they are', which fits since the sentence describes an action they are doing.
37. impatient, illogical

38. A) immediately, C) beginning and E) different
39. halves, shelves
40. knowledge, government
41. A) affect / effect
42. collection, confusion
43. B) misspell
44. received, their
45. B) 'The children's toys were on the floor and the family's car was outside.' — 'child' has the irregular plural 'children', and both nouns need an apostrophe before the 's' to show possession.
