Sentences & Clauses

Year 4 · Homework Worksheet

Worked Example

Worked example: Is this sentence simple, compound or complex? "She was tired, but she finished her homework."

Answer: Compound - two main clauses joined by "but".

Easy / Standard (15 questions)

1. Is this a simple sentence? "The fish swam."
2. Find the subject and verb: "The girl skipped."
3. Join with "and": "I have a cat. I have a dog."
4. Is this simple, compound or complex? "The bell rang."
5. Join with "but": "He tried hard. He still lost."
6. Find the subject and verb: "The train arrived."
7. Is this simple, compound or complex? "It was sunny, so we went to the beach"? A) simple B) compound C) complex D) none of these
8. Join with "or": "We could walk. We could cycle."
9. Find the subject and verb: "The baby giggled."
10. Is this simple, compound or complex? "Because he was late, he missed the bus"? A) simple B) compound C) complex D) none of these
11. Join with "so": "She was thirsty. She drank water."
12. Find the subject and verb: "The leaves fell."
13. Is this simple, compound or complex? "The cat purred softly on the sofa."
14. Select ALL the sentences below that are COMPOUND (joined by a coordinating conjunction): A) The puppy chased its tail. B) It was dark, so we turned on the lights. C) Because he was late, he missed the bus. D) She was thirsty, but she found no water. E) The leaves fell gently.
15. Add a conjunction: "It was dark. We turned on the lights."

Standard (15 questions)

1. Turn into a compound sentence using "but": "The soup was hot. It was delicious."
2. Identify the subordinate clause: "Before the sun rose, the farmer began work."
3. Is this simple, compound or complex? "Even though she was nervous, she performed well."
4. Add a subordinating conjunction: "___ we arrived, the film had started."
5. Identify the main clause: "The picnic was cancelled because of the rain."
6. Combine into a complex sentence: "The alarm sounded. Everyone left the building."
7. Is this simple, compound or complex? "The wind blew and the leaves scattered everywhere"? A) simple B) compound C) complex D) none of these

© PassFrame Tuition — for registered student use

8. Identify the subordinate clause: "Unless you finish your dinner, you cannot have dessert."

9. Punctuate correctly: "After the concert ended the crowd cheered."

10. Combine using "while": "The dog barked. The cat hid."

11. Is this simple, compound or complex? "She read the book before watching the film"? A) simple B) compound C) complex D) none of these

12. Identify the two main clauses: "The bell rang and the pupils rushed outside."

13. Which conjunction fits: "We wore hats ___ the sun was strong"?

14. Select ALL the sentences below that are COMPLEX (contain a subordinate clause): A) Whenever I visit Gran, she bakes biscuits. B) The dog ran and the cat hid. C) Even though she was nervous, she performed well. D) The alarm sounded, and everyone left. E) Unless you finish your dinner, you cannot have dessert.

15. Add a subordinate clause to: "The dog ran happily."

Standard / Advanced (15 questions)

1. Is "Slowly and carefully, closing the gate" a full sentence, and why or why not?

2. In "The dog, tired from the walk, slept all afternoon," is "tired from the walk" a clause or a phrase, and how can you tell?

3. Find the conjunction in "The sky was clear, yet it felt cold," and say whether the sentence is compound or complex.

4. Is "The quick brown fox and the lazy dog slept in the sun" simple or compound, and why?

5. What type of sentence is "Stop!", and what is its subject?

6. Read: "Because the tide was rising, the children hurried back to the beach." Identify the subordinate clause and the main clause.

7. Rewrite this pair of simple sentences as one complex sentence, then as one compound sentence: "The rain stopped. We went outside."

8. Which part of this sentence is the relative clause? "The old lighthouse, which had stood for a hundred years, finally closed." A) The old lighthouse B) which had stood for a hundred years C) finally closed D) The old lighthouse finally closed

9. Is this sentence compound, complex or simple? "Although the match was delayed, the fans stayed." A) simple B) compound C) complex D) none of these

10. Write your own complex sentence about a school trip, then underline the subordinate clause.

11. Read: "The kitten hid under the bed because the thunder frightened it." Find the main clause and the subordinate clause.

12. Combine these two simple sentences into one complex sentence: "The bakery opened early. The smell of bread filled the street."

13. Which sentence below correctly uses a semicolon to join two related main clauses? A) The crowd cheered; the players bowed. B) The crowd cheered, the players bowed. C) The crowd cheered: the players bowed. D) The crowd cheered the players bowed.

14. Select ALL that apply. Which of the following are COMPLEX sentences (one main clause plus one subordinate clause)? A) Although she was scared, she ran. B) The dog barked loudly. C) Because it was late, we went home. D) She sang, and he danced. E) The book, which I borrowed, was long.

15. What is the difference in meaning between these two sentences? "The dog that bit the postman was punished." and "The dog, which bit the postman, was punished." A) No difference in meaning B) First: only one dog (the one that bit) is meant; second: adds extra detail about an already-known dog C) First means many dogs were punished D) Second means no dog was punished

© PassFrame Tuition — for registered student use

© PassFrame Tuition — for registered student use