Sentences & Clauses

Year 4 · Mark Scheme

Lesson Worksheet — Answers

Easy / Standard

1. Yes
2. No - it is compound
3. Tom likes football and cricket.
4. subject = baby, verb = slept
5. simple
6. She was hungry but she had no food.
7. subject = children, verb = laughed
8. B — compound (two main clauses joined by "but")
9. You can have juice or water.
10. subject = car, verb = broke down
11. C — complex (a subordinate clause of reason introduced by "Because")
12. It was cold so we wore coats.
13. subject = teacher, verb = smiled
14. B and D (both use a coordinating conjunction — so, but — to join two main clauses; A and E are simple, C is complex)
15. He was tired so he went to bed.

Standard

16. The cake looked delicious but it tasted burnt.
17. When the bell rang
18. complex
19. As / When
20. The match was cancelled
21. Because it was raining, we took umbrellas.
22. B — compound (two independent clauses joined by "and")
23. Unless you hurry
24. Before the race started, the runners stretched.
25. While Mum cooked dinner, Dad set the table.
26. C — complex (one main clause with a subordinate clause introduced by "before")
27. The lights flickered; the power cut out
28. because
29. A, C and E (all three contain a subordinate clause introduced by whenever/because/although; B and D are compound, joined only by coordinating conjunctions)
30. example: When the team scored, the children cheered.

Standard / Hard

31. we went to the park
32. Although it was raining
33. C) When the sun rose, the birds sang.
34. which I borrowed from the library

© PassFrame Tuition — for registered student use

35. B and D (both have two main clauses joined by a coordinating conjunction — "so" and "but"; A and E are simple, C is complex)
36. Because they had won the final, the team celebrated. (or: The team celebrated because they had won the final.)
37. If you study hard — this is a condition clause
38. A main clause can stand alone ("everyone left the building"); a subordinate clause cannot ("Because the fire alarm rang").
39. Because the storm was fierce, the ferry was cancelled.
40. who lives in Scotland
41. C — complex (the opening part is a subordinate clause)
42. example: "The house, which had a red door, was for sale."
43. A) Neither…nor
44. A) The sky darkened; the storm arrived.
45. The sky darkened; the storm arrived.

© PassFrame Tuition — for registered student use

Homework Worksheet — Answers

Easy / Standard

1. Yes
2. subject = girl, verb = skipped
3. I have a cat and a dog.
4. simple
5. He tried hard but he still lost.
6. subject = train, verb = arrived
7. B — compound (two independent clauses joined by "so")
8. We could walk or cycle.
9. subject = baby, verb = giggled
10. C — complex (a subordinate clause of reason introduced by "Because")
11. She was thirsty so she drank water.
12. subject = leaves, verb = fell
13. simple
14. B and D (both use a coordinating conjunction — so, but — to join two main clauses; A and E are simple, C is complex)
15. It was dark so we turned on the lights.

Standard

16. The soup was hot but it was delicious.
17. Before the sun rose
18. complex
19. By the time / When
20. The picnic was cancelled
21. When the alarm sounded, everyone left the building.
22. B — compound (two independent clauses joined by "and")
23. Unless you finish your dinner
24. After the concert ended, the crowd cheered.
25. While the dog barked, the cat hid.
26. C — complex (one main clause with a subordinate clause introduced by "before")
27. The bell rang; the pupils rushed outside
28. because
29. A, C and E (all three contain a subordinate clause introduced by whenever/even though/unless; B and D are compound, joined only by coordinating conjunctions)
30. example: When it saw its owner, the dog ran happily.

Standard / Advanced

31. No — it has no main clause and no subject doing an action, so it is a sentence fragment.
32. phrase — it adds extra description but has no verb of its own, so it cannot stand alone as a clause.
33. yet — the sentence is compound (a coordinating conjunction joins two equal main clauses).
34. simple — there is only one verb ("slept") with two subjects joined together, not two separate clauses.
35. It is an imperative (command) sentence; its subject is the understood "you."
36. subordinate clause = Because the tide was rising; main clause = the children hurried back to the beach
37. Complex: "When the rain stopped, we went outside." Compound: "The rain stopped, and we went outside."

© PassFrame Tuition — for registered student use

38. B) which had stood for a hundred years
39. C — complex (one subordinate clause plus one main clause)
40. Any correct complex sentence about a school trip with the subordinate clause correctly underlined.
41. main clause = the kitten hid under the bed; subordinate clause = because the thunder frightened it
42. "When the bakery opened early, the smell of bread filled the street." (or similar)
43. A) The crowd cheered; the players bowed.
44. A, C and E (each has one main clause plus one subordinate clause; B is simple, D is compound)
45. B — without commas, only some dogs (the one that bit) are meant; with commas, it adds extra information about one already-known dog.

© PassFrame Tuition — for registered student use