Commas & Apostrophes

Year 4 · Homework Worksheet

Worked Example

Worked example: Correct the punctuation: "Toms bag which was red was left on the bus."

Answer: "Tom's bag, which was red, was left on the bus." (possessive apostrophe + commas around the extra information)

Easy / Standard (15 questions)

1. Add the apostrophe: "The birds nest fell."
2. Write the contraction for "is not".
3. Add commas: "I like cats dogs and rabbits."
4. Which option correctly punctuates the possessive: "Emmas pencil case is pink"? A) Emma's B) Emmas' C) Emmas D) Emma,s
5. Write the contraction for "we will".
6. Add commas: "She bought bread cheese and jam."
7. Add the apostrophe: "The bakers oven was hot."
8. Write the contraction for "did not".
9. Select ALL the sentences below with the apostrophe used CORRECTLY: A) The boy's bag was left behind. B) The boys' bag was left behind (one boy). C) Its raining. D) The horse's saddle was heavy. E) The bird's nest fell.
10. Add the apostrophe: "Emmas pencil case is pink."
11. Write the contraction for "you are".
12. Add commas: "We visited London Paris and Rome."
13. Add the apostrophe: "The horses saddle was heavy."
14. Write the contraction for "will not".
15. Add commas: "The shop sold toys books and games."

Standard (15 questions)

1. Punctuate the plural possessive: "The twins toys were mixed up."
2. Choose correctly: "The plant needs ___ (its/it's) water every day."
3. Add a comma after the fronted adverbial: "In the morning the birds sing loudly."
4. Punctuate the irregular plural possessive: "The peoples opinions were shared."
5. Choose correctly: "___ (Its/It's) a beautiful day."
6. Add commas for direct address: "Come here quickly Dad."
7. Is "The girls' bikes were parked outside" correctly punctuated for more than one girl?
8. Add a comma: "Well I suppose you could come."
9. Punctuate the possessive: "The womens coats were on the rack."

© PassFrame Tuition — for registered student use

10. Add commas between adjectives: "It was a bright warm sunny afternoon."

11. Select ALL the options below where the apostrophe is used CORRECTLY: A) Chris's jacket (one boy, Chris) B) Chri's jacket C) the knights' armour (many knights) D) the knight's armour (many knights) E) the men's coats

12. Add a comma after the fronted adverbial: "Without warning the alarm sounded."

13. Punctuate: "Chris jacket was left in the hall." (a name ending in s)

14. Add commas: "No I dont think thats fair."

15. Punctuate the possessive: "The knights armour clanked." (one knight)

Standard / Advanced (15 questions)

1. In "the class's trip" vs "the classes' trip," which is correct for a trip belonging to ONE class, and why?

2. Does "The 1990s were exciting" need an apostrophe, and why or why not?

3. Which is correct if BOTH parents own the car, "my parents' car" or "my parent's car," and why?

4. Is an apostrophe needed in "the dog's bone" if there is only one dog, and where does it go?

5. Explain why "yours" never takes an apostrophe, giving one example sentence.

6. Punctuate this sentence fully, adding commas and an apostrophe: "My sisters best friend whose name is Priya is staying this weekend."

7. Read: "The two dogs bowls were empty and the cats bowl was full." Correct the possessives (two dogs; one cat).

8. Punctuate this sentence, which needs a list comma and a possessive: "Toms coat scarf and gloves were soaked."

9. Which sentence shows that the friends ALL live abroad (not just some)? A) My friends who live abroad are visiting. B) My friends, who live abroad, are visiting. C) Both mean the same thing D) Neither sentence makes sense

10. Correct all the punctuation in this sentence: "Its the childrens turn next said the referee."

11. Select ALL that apply. Which of these possessive/contraction forms are CORRECT? A) yours (no apostrophe) B) your's C) it's raining (contraction of "it is") D) its' paw E) theirs (no apostrophe)

12. Read: "The suns rays warmed the beach and the childrens laughter filled the air." Add all missing commas and apostrophes.

13. Why do "yours", "hers" and "its" never take an apostrophe? A) Because they are already possessive pronouns B) Because they are contractions C) Because they are proper nouns D) Because they are plural nouns

14. Which correctly punctuates the possessive belonging to three witches? A) witches spell B) witch's spell C) witches' spell D) witches's spell

15. Which version of this sentence is correctly punctuated? A) The girls bag was heavy, she couldnt lift it. B) The girl's bag was heavy, so she couldn't lift it. C) The girls' bag was heavy so she could'nt lift it. D) The girls bag, was heavy so she couldnt lift, it.

© PassFrame Tuition — for registered student use