Commas & Apostrophes

Year 4 · Lesson Worksheet

Worked Examples

A) Easy: Add the apostrophe: "The dogs bone was buried."

Answer: "The dog's bone was buried." (shows the bone belongs to the dog)

B) Standard: Add commas to this list: "I bought apples pears and bananas."

Answer: "I bought apples, pears and bananas."

C) Advanced: Punctuate correctly: "Its been raining but the dogs are still outside."

Answer: "It's been raining, but the dogs are still outside." (It's = it has; comma before "but" joining two clauses)

Easy / Standard (15 questions)

1. Add the apostrophe: "The cats tail was fluffy."
2. Write the contraction for "do not".
3. Add commas: "She packed a hat a scarf and gloves."
4. Which option correctly punctuates the possessive: "Sams bike is new"? A) Sam's bike B) Sams' bike C) Sams bike D) Sam,s bike
5. Write the contraction for "I am".
6. Add commas: "We saw lions tigers and bears."
7. Add the apostrophe: "The teachers desk was tidy."
8. Write the contraction for "she will".
9. Select ALL the sentences below with the apostrophe used CORRECTLY: A) The dog's lead snapped. B) The dogs' lead snapped (one dog). C) Its going to rain. D) The cat's bowl was empty. E) The boy's coat was muddy.
10. Add the apostrophe: "The girls coat was blue."
11. Write the contraction for "they are".
12. Add commas: "I need eggs milk and flour."
13. Add the apostrophe: "The dogs lead snapped."
14. Write the contraction for "cannot".
15. Add commas: "The box held pens pencils and rulers."

Standard (15 questions)

1. Punctuate the plural possessive: "The two boys bags were left outside."
2. Choose correctly: "The dog wagged ___ (its/it's) tail."
3. Add a comma after the fronted adverbial: "After the match the players shook hands."

© PassFrame Tuition — for registered student use

4. Punctuate the plural possessive: "The childrens playground was rebuilt."
5. Choose correctly: "___ (Its/It's) time to go home."
6. Add commas for direct address: "Please pass the salt Mum."
7. Is the apostrophe correct in "The three sisters' room was messy"? Explain.
8. Add a comma: "Yes I would love to come."
9. Punctuate the possessive: "The mens changing room was locked."
10. Add commas to separate adjectives: "It was a cold dark windy night."
11. Select ALL the options below where the apostrophe is used CORRECTLY: A) James's coat (one boy, James) B) Jame's coat C) the ladies' bags (many ladies) D) the lady's bags (many ladies) E) the childrens' toys
12. Add a comma after the fronted adverbial: "Suddenly the lights went out."
13. Punctuate the possessive: "James coat was hanging on the peg." (a name ending in s)
14. Add commas: "No I havent finished yet."
15. Punctuate the possessive: "The ladies bags were checked."

Standard / Hard (15 questions)

1. Explain the difference between "the cat's tail" and "the cats' tail".
2. Punctuate correctly, showing that the captain belongs to both teams: "The two teams captain shook hands."
3. Add commas to this sentence with a relative clause: "My friend who lives next door is coming to tea."
4. Which is correctly punctuated? A) The childrens' book B) The children's book C) The childrens book D) The childrens's book
5. Add commas to separate the extra information: "The old house which had stood for years was finally sold."
6. Punctuate correctly: "Its a shame the puppys toy broke."
7. Correct this sentence: "Whose coat is this its very muddy."
8. Which sentence correctly uses a comma before a name in direct address? A) Let's eat, Grandma! B) Let's eat Grandma! C) Let's, eat Grandma! D) Let's eat Grandma,!
9. Which correctly shows the office belonging to one boss? A) Boss's office B) Bosses' office C) Bosss office D) Boss,s office
10. Explain when to use "whose" and when to use "who's", then write one short example of each.
11. Select ALL the possessive forms below that are punctuated CORRECTLY: A) the dog's bone (one dog) B) the dogs' bone (more than one dog) C) the dogs's bone D) the mens' coats E) the men's coats
12. Add a comma after the fronted phrase: "Later that evening we went outside."
13. Punctuate (more than one witch): "The witches cauldron bubbled."
14. Why does "theirs" need no apostrophe? A) It is a possessive pronoun, and possessive pronouns never take an apostrophe B) It is a contraction C) It is a plural noun D) It is a proper noun
15. Punctuate (one mouse): "The mouses cheese had gone mouldy."

© PassFrame Tuition — for registered student use