Advanced Punctuation

Year 4 · Mark Scheme

Lesson Worksheet — Answers

Easy / Standard

1. "Hello," said Anna.
2. "I am tired," he said.
3. B — He packed one thing: his football (colon introduces a single item)
4. "Come here," called Mum.
5. We need: eggs, flour and sugar.
6. A — "That's amazing," exclaimed Sam. (speech marks around the exact words, comma before the reporting clause)
7. It was cold; we wore coats.
8. "Be careful," warned Dad.
9. A and D — "He needed one thing: courage." / "There was one winner: Priya." (a colon introduces a single item; B and E wrongly use a comma or no punctuation; C invents new content)
10. "I love this book," said Leo.
11. The dog barked; the cat hid.
12. A — "Where are we going?" asked Tom.
13. one wish: to fly
14. A — "Well done," said the coach.
15. The sun set; the stars appeared.

Standard

16. "Are you coming?" asked Priya. "I hope so."
17. B — He had only one rule: never be late. (colon introduces the explanation)
18. The exam was hard; most pupils did well anyway.
19. "Stop right there!" shouted the guard.
20. "Hello," said Sam. "Hi," replied Jess.
21. three ingredients: butter, sugar and flour
22. B — She practised every day; her skills improved quickly. (semicolon joins two closely related independent clauses)
23. "I can't believe it," whispered Ali.
24. A, C and E — "He was late: one reason his alarm hadn't gone off." / "The teacher gave one instruction: be quiet." / "She had one wish: to fly." (all correctly use a colon to introduce an explanation; B and D wrongly use a comma)
25. "Watch out for the step!" warned the guide.
26. The museum was fascinating; we stayed for hours.
27. A — "What time is it?" he asked nervously.
28. one instruction: be quiet
29. A — "I did it!" she cried with joy.
30. The bakery smelled wonderful; everyone wanted to go inside.

Standard / Hard

31. "Are you ready?" asked Maya.
32. C — colon: it introduces an explanation of what the goal was ("to win")
33. The storm passed; the sun came out.

© PassFrame Tuition — for registered student use

34. The bag contained the following items: a torch, a map and a compass.
35. C — semicolon: joins the two closely related sentences without "and"
36. "I think," said Leo, "that we should turn back."
37. A and E — both correctly use semicolons to separate list items that already contain internal commas (B and D have no punctuation at all; C wrongly uses semicolons in a simple list with no internal commas)
38. "Run!" he yelled. "The bridge is collapsing!"
39. No comma or speech marks are needed for reported speech: She said that she was tired.
40. C — colon: introduces the explanation of what the mess was
41. "Did you see that?" gasped Ana.
42. B — semicolon: the more formal way to join two closely related independent clauses without "and"
43. "Watch out," said Grandpa, "for the ice on the path."
44. The quoted sentence should start with a capital letter: The teacher said, "You must all be quiet."
45. "Good morning," she said cheerfully.

© PassFrame Tuition — for registered student use

Homework Worksheet — Answers

Easy / Standard

1. "Good morning," said Mrs Patel.
2. A — "I'm ready!" he shouted.
3. two pets: a cat and a dog
4. "Thank you," replied Jess.
5. C — He needed one thing: courage.
6. "That hurts!" cried Ben.
7. It was late; we went home.
8. A, C and E — "Look out!" warned the lifeguard / "Be careful!" warned Dad / "Watch out!" warned the guide (all correctly punctuated; B and D are missing the speech marks and exclamation mark)
9. one rule: no shouting
10. "I found it!" shouted Ali.
11. B — The fire crackled; we felt warm.
12. "Can I help?" asked the shopkeeper.
13. C — She packed one item: her passport.
14. "Well played," said the coach.
15. The lights dimmed; the film began.

Standard

16. "Can we go now?" asked Ellie. "I'm bored."
17. B — He had one aim: to finish first.
18. The play was long; the audience stayed until the end.
19. "Help me!" shouted the swimmer.
20. "Hi," said Omar. "Hello," replied Zara.
21. three names: Sam, Priya and Leo
22. B — The garden was quiet; only the birds could be heard.
23. "I can't find my shoes," moaned Jack.
24. A, C and E — "The match was postponed: one reason the pitch was flooded." / "The coach gave one warning: no more fouls." / "He had one aim: to finish first." (all correctly use a colon; B and D wrongly use a comma)
25. "Mind the gap!" announced the guard.
26. The cake rose perfectly; everyone was impressed.
27. A — "Is this yours?" he asked, holding up the scarf.
28. one warning: no more fouls
29. A — "We won!" she cheered.
30. The train was delayed; passengers waited patiently.

Standard / Advanced

31. semicolon — it joins two closely related independent clauses
32. colon — it introduces the single explanation of what the fear was
33. The first word of a quoted sentence should be capitalised: He whispered, "Be quiet."
34. Yes — it's a comma splice; use a semicolon instead: The rain stopped; the sun came out.
35. No — this colon simply separates hours and minutes in a time; it does not introduce a list or explanation.
36. "Where have you been?" asked Mum. "I was at the library," replied Sam.

© PassFrame Tuition — for registered student use

37. The recipe was simple: flour, eggs, milk and a pinch of salt.
38. She packed everything she needed: a tent, a torch; she was ready.
39. Example: "We lost again," sighed Leo. "Next time," said Priya, "we'll win."
40. B) The explorer had one goal: to reach the summit; however, the weather had other plans.
41. B) "We should leave soon," said Maya.
42. A and D — both correctly use semicolons to separate list items that already contain internal commas (B has no semicolons; C wrongly semicolons a simple list; E drops the detail)
43. A — "It's ready!" she announced, holding up the cake.
44. B — semicolon: joins the two closely related sentences
45. A colon introduces a list or explanation (e.g. "She needed one thing: rest."); a semicolon joins two closely related complete sentences (e.g. "The rain stopped; the sun came out.")

© PassFrame Tuition — for registered student use