Figurative Language

Year 4 · Mark Scheme

Lesson Worksheet — Answers

Easy / Standard

1. simile

2. B — metaphor

3. personification

4. alliteration

5. simile

6. B — metaphor

7. personification

8. alliteration

9. A, B and E — these three use like/as to compare (similes); C and D are metaphors

10. B — metaphor

11. personification

12. alliteration

13. simile

14. B — metaphor

15. personification

Standard

16. example: a torch / a lamp

17. example: "The car was a bullet."

18. it gives the storm a human/animal action (attacking), making it feel violent and alive

19. A — f (fierce, flames, flickered)

20. a simile compares using like/as (e.g. as brave as a lion); a metaphor says something IS another thing (e.g. he is a lion)

21. example: as brave as a lion

22. C — personification

23. example: drizzling, dripping drops

24. it shows she seemed cold, unfeeling or unkind

25. example: a library / a mouse

26. C — personification

27. example: "The sea was a raging monster."

28. A, D and E — these use like/as to compare (similes); B is personification and C is a metaphor

29. it makes non-human things seem alive/active, creating atmosphere - the fog seems sneaky or mysterious

30. A — c (curious, cats, crept, closer)

Standard / Hard

31. A and B — simile ('roared like a giant') and personification (thunder 'roared', village 'sleepy')

32. example: 'She was a rock' — hidden comparison: strong, steady, unmoving

33. C — personification (it makes the house seem alive, almost complaining)

34. example: 'as brave as a firefighter walking into flames'

35. s (silent, snake, slid, sand) — creates a soft, hissing sound that matches the snake

© PassFrame Tuition — for registered student use

36. it creates a vivid sound-picture in the reader's mind, showing rather than telling how noisy it was

37. A and B — alliteration (fierce fire) and simile (like a hungry beast)

38. example: 'The river was a raging beast that clawed at its banks.'

39. B — it personifies the wind, making it feel powerful and almost alive

40. shadows creeping — creates a spooky, slightly frightening mood

41. it creates a richer, more visual image, comparing the stars to something precious and beautiful

42. A — simile (compares his mood to British weather, which is famously changeable)

43. example: 'The leaves danced and whispered as they fell.'

44. the repeated 'b' sound and the idea of the wind 'biting' work together to make the cold feel sharp and almost alive

45. example: 'The moon was a silver coin in the dark sky' — it creates a precise, shining image of the moon

© PassFrame Tuition — for registered student use

Homework Worksheet — Answers

Easy / Standard

1. simile
2. B — metaphor
3. personification
4. alliteration
5. simile
6. A, B and D — these say one thing IS another with no like/as (metaphors); C and E are similes
7. C — personification
8. alliteration
9. simile
10. B — metaphor
11. personification
12. alliteration
13. simile
14. B — metaphor
15. personification

Standard

16. example: a drum / an explosion
17. example: "He was a volcano about to erupt."
18. it makes the trees seem alive and friendly, as if saying farewell
19. A — p
20. a simile compares two things using like/as; personification gives human qualities to non-human things (e.g. the wind whispered)
21. example: as cold as ice
22. C — personification
23. example: crashing, crackling clouds
24. it shows his words were hurtful, sharp and painful
25. example: a rubbish tip / a bomb site
26. C — personification
27. example: "The market was a beehive of activity."
28. A, D and E — these use like/as to compare (similes); B is personification and C is a metaphor
29. they help readers picture something clearly by comparing it to something familiar
30. A — d

Standard / Advanced

31. B — personification (gives the clock a human feeling)
32. it says the letters ARE a flood (no 'like'/'as'), rather than comparing them to one
33. yes — it suggests feeling overwhelmed, as if unable to cope, like being underwater
34. B — personification (with a touch of oxymoron), effective because silence and screaming contrast sharply, emphasising how tense the quiet felt
35. it makes phrases memorable and pleasing to say aloud; example: 'Best Buy'

© PassFrame Tuition — for registered student use

36. (a) 'stretched its branches' — the tree is given a human action (b) 'like a giant reaching for the sun' — a simile using 'like'
37. example: 'The playground buzzed like a hive; it was a carnival of noise.'
38. the fire is compared to a hungry animal — its flames are 'tongues' and it 'licks' at the curtains, as if eating them
39. A — personification (wind screamed) and simile (hammered like fists)
40. student-written; check for one clearly labelled simile and one clearly labelled example of personification
41. A) 'The city never sleeps.' and D) 'The traffic lights blinked patiently.'
42. A and C — alliteration (crisp, crunching, crackled) and onomatopoeia (crackled sounds like what it describes)
43. fear is personified as having icy fingers that grip — this creates a sense of dread and being overwhelmed by fear
44. too many devices piled together can feel cluttered and lose their impact; fewer, well-chosen devices are usually more powerful
45. example: 'School is a long road, full of twists and turns. Every test is a hill to climb.'

© PassFrame Tuition — for registered student use