Sentences & Clauses (Set B)

Year 4 Pt 2 · Mark Scheme

Lesson Worksheet — Answers

Purple — Getting Started

1. Yes — one subject (baker), one verb (opened), one complete idea.
2. The dog barked loudly (the whole sentence — it is one main clause).
3. B) The sun rose.
4. The kettle boiled, and Mum made tea.
5. Because it was raining
6. we stayed inside
7. A) and; C) but; E) or
8. Any correct one-clause sentence about a football match.
9. C) The lights flickered, and then they went out.
10. He practised every day, but he still lost the match.
11. Subject: children; Verb: cheered.
12. C) so
13. Any correct compound sentence using 'or', e.g. 'We can go to the park, or we can stay home.'
14. It has no finite verb/subject completing a full idea — it is only a participle phrase, not a complete thought.
15. A) The cat slept.; C) Birds flew south.; E) The bell rang.

Green — Building Fluency

16. Subordinate clause: 'When the alarm sounded'; Main clause: 'everyone left the building calmly'.
17. C) Although the rain stopped, the ground stayed wet.
18. Although she was tired, she finished the race.
19. Since
20. A main clause makes complete sense alone (e.g. 'The dog barked'); a subordinate clause cannot stand alone (e.g. 'because it saw a cat'). Accept any correct equivalent example.
21. A) If it rains, the match will be cancelled.; C) The match was cancelled because it rained.; E) Although it rained, the match continued.
22. The wind howled; the waves crashed.
23. A) Unless
24. It has no main clause of its own — it depends on another clause to complete its meaning (what happened after the show finished?).
25. Any correct complex sentence beginning with 'Because', e.g. 'Because it was cold, we wore coats.'
26. The chef prepared the meal / the waiter served it.
27. B) When the bell rang, the pupils stood up.
28. Any correct complex sentence using 'while', e.g. 'Dad cooked dinner while we set the table.'
29. Main clause: 'The dog…was exhausted'; Subordinate clause: 'that chased the ball' (a relative clause describing the dog).
30. A) because; C) although; E) if

Red — Challenge

31. Main clause: 'The scientist…refused to stop working.' You find it by removing the interrupting clauses ('who discovered the cure', 'although exhausted') and checking what remains makes complete sense alone.

© PassFrame Tuition — for registered student use

32. A compound sentence joins two equal main clauses with a coordinating conjunction (e.g. 'She ran, and he walked'); a complex sentence joins a main clause with a subordinate clause (e.g. 'She ran because she was late'). Accept any correct original examples.
33. B) Although it was late, she stayed, because she wanted to help.
34. Main clause: 'the children…ran back up the beach'; Subordinate clauses: 'When the tide came in' and 'who had been building sandcastles'.
35. B) The bridge collapsed suddenly.; D) Firefighters arrived within minutes.
36. Any correct complex sentence with a comma-marked embedded subordinate clause, correctly labelled.
37. C) Priya went straight to bed.
38. A sentence is compound-complex when it has at least two main clauses joined by a conjunction AND at least one subordinate clause, e.g. 'Although it rained, we set off, and we still arrived on time.' (subordinate: 'Although it rained'; two main clauses joined by 'and'). Accept any correct equivalent example.
39. Main clause: 'The bridge…finally collapsed during the flood'; Subordinate clause: 'which had stood for two centuries'.
40. A) The storm passed; the sun came out.
41. Any correct sentence combining compound and complex features, e.g. 'When the alarm rang, everyone evacuated, and the fire brigade arrived soon after.'
42. Subordinate clauses: 'If the forecast is right' and 'the wind drops' (joined by 'and' within the same if-clause); Main clause: 'the race will start on time'.
43. It has no main clause — turn it into e.g. 'Despite trying her hardest, she did not win' (adds the main clause 'she did not win').
44. A) The book, which I borrowed from the library, is overdue.; E) The book that I borrowed is overdue.
45. Any correct sentence with one main clause and two subordinate clauses (one fronted, one embedded), correctly labelled.

© PassFrame Tuition — for registered student use

Homework Worksheet — Answers

Purple — Getting Started

1. Yes — one subject (librarian), one verb (stamped), one complete idea.
2. The baby giggled happily (the whole sentence).
3. B) It snowed.
4. The oven beeped, and Dad took out the pie.
5. Although it was dark
6. they kept walking
7. A) but; C) or; D) and
8. Any correct one-clause sentence about a school trip.
9. C) The lights dimmed, and then the power failed.
10. She studied hard, but she still found the test difficult.
11. Subject: crowd; Verb: roared.
12. C) so
13. Any correct compound sentence using 'or'.
14. It has no finite verb/subject completing a full idea — it is only a participle phrase.
15. A) The owl hooted.; C) Rain fell steadily.; E) The gate creaked.

Green — Building Fluency

16. Subordinate clause: 'When the whistle blew'; Main clause: 'the players stopped immediately'.
17. C) Although the fog lifted, it stayed cold.
18. Although he was nervous, he gave the speech.
19. Since
20. A main clause makes complete sense alone; a subordinate clause cannot stand alone. Accept any correct equivalent example.
21. A) If the bus is late, we will walk.; C) We walked because the bus was late.; E) Although the bus was late, we waited.
22. The thunder rumbled; the lights flickered.
23. A) Unless
24. It has no main clause of its own — it depends on another clause to complete its meaning.
25. Any correct complex sentence beginning with 'Because'.
26. The gardener planted the seeds / the rain watered them.
27. B) Although tired, she carried on.
28. Any correct complex sentence using 'while'.
29. Main clause: 'The bike…broke down'; Subordinate clause: 'that I borrowed' (a relative clause describing the bike).
30. A) since; C) unless; E) when

Standard / Advanced

31. Main clause: 'The teacher…dismissed the class.' Remove the interrupting details ('calm but firm', 'who had taught here for years') to find what remains makes complete sense alone.
32. Compound — the one-word proof is the coordinating conjunction 'yet' joining two equal main clauses (both 'the storm passed quickly' and 'the roads stayed flooded for days' can stand alone).
33. A) Because the road flooded, drivers turned back, although some pressed on.
34. Main clause: 'the fishermen…finally cast their nets'; Subordinate clauses: 'Before the sun rose' and 'who had waited all night'.
35. B) The ferry finally arrived.; D) Passengers boarded quickly.

© PassFrame Tuition — for registered student use

36. Any correct complex sentence with a comma-marked embedded subordinate clause, correctly labelled.

37. C) Noor rushed to the station.

38. A sentence is compound-complex when it has at least two main clauses joined by a conjunction AND at least one subordinate clause. Accept any correct example with parts labelled.

39. Main clause: 'The tower…finally crumbled during the earthquake'; Subordinate clause: 'which had been built in the 1800s'.

40. A) The crowd cheered; the players bowed.

41. Any correct sentence combining compound and complex features, e.g. 'When the siren sounded, workers left the building, and supervisors checked every floor.'

42. Subordinate clauses: 'Unless the rain stops' and 'the pitch dries'; Main clause: 'the final will be postponed'.

43. It has no main clause — turn it into e.g. 'Even though she trained every single day, she did not qualify' (adds the main clause).

44. A) The painting, which hung in the hallway, was priceless.; E) The painting that hung there is priceless.

45. Any correct sentence with one main clause and two subordinate clauses (one fronted, one embedded), correctly labelled.

© PassFrame Tuition — for registered student use