Proofreading (Set B)

Year 4 Pt 2 · Mark Scheme

Lesson Worksheet — Answers

Core Practice

1. "boy's" should be "boys" (plural, not possessive — there is more than one boy and nothing belongs to the boy here).
2. "we" and "saturday" should be capitalised: "We went to the zoo on Saturday."
3. "cant" should be "can't" (missing apostrophe).
4. A) childrens — should be "children's".
5. "runned" should be "ran" (irregular past tense of 'run').
6. "Its" should be "It's" (contraction of 'it is').
7. A question mark (?) is missing at the end.
8. "walks" should be "walk" (to agree with the plural subject 'the three friends').
9. A) "I have two brother's.", C) "We seen the movie last night." and E) "He don't like vegetables."
10. "Blue" should not be capitalised: "My favourite colour is blue."
11. "There" should be "They're" (contraction of 'they are').
12. B) forcast — should be "forecast".
13. The comma should be a full stop or semicolon (or add 'and'): "He plays football. He also plays cricket."
14. "us're" should be "our": "The teacher gave us our homework."
15. C) cycling

Applied Practice

16. "go" should be "went": "Yesterday, we went to the cinema and watched a great film."
17. "they're" should be "their": "The three sisters shared their lunch together."
18. "Its" should be "It's" and "you're" should be "your": "It's important to brush your teeth twice a day."
19. B) missing apostrophe for possession (should be "dog's bone")
20. Missing comma and quotation marks: "He said, 'I'm going to be late.'"
21. "was" should be "were": "The students were excited about the school trip."
22. A) Their — should be "They're".
23. "should of" should be "should have": "I should have finished my homework earlier."
24. A) "She walked to school and then eats her lunch.", C) "They were laughing and then starts crying." and E) "I run to the park and then played football."
25. "effects" should be "affects": "The new rules affect everyone in the school."
26. "Me and him" should be "He and I": "He and I are going to the match tonight."
27. No, this sentence is actually correct — the commas correctly separate items in a list (including the optional comma before 'and') and 'but' correctly introduces a contrasting clause.
28. B) comma splice (should be two sentences or joined with 'and'/semicolon)
29. "Its" should be "It's" and "loose" should be "lose": "It's a shame that the team lose every match this season."
30. A) "The dog's lead is red.", D) "The two girls' coats were left behind." and E) "Who's turn is it next?"

Challenge

31. The modifier 'Running down the hill' incorrectly implies the ball was running; corrected: "Running down the hill, the boy was hit by a bouncing ball." (or "As the boy ran down the hill, the ball bounced past him.")
32. C) fewer

33. "Whom" should be "Who" (subject of the sentence, not the object): "Who is coming to the party tonight?"
34. "boy's" should be "boys'" (plural possessive): "The two boys' coats were left on the bus."
35. "was" should be "were" (the subjunctive form for hypothetical situations): "If I were taller, I would be able to reach the shelf."
36. A) "Having finished the race, the trophy was awarded to her." and D) "Walking to school, the rain started to fall on Tom."
37. "are" should be "is" ('neither' is singular): "Neither of the answers is correct."
38. "they're" should be "their" (possessive, not the contraction 'they are'): "The company have decided to relocate their headquarters." ('have' is acceptable British usage for a collective noun like 'company'.)
39. B) taller
40. A) "There is less traffic today.", B) "She has fewer problems to worry about." and D) "We need fewer chairs for the meeting."
41. A) The reason he was late is that he missed the bus.
42. "I only ate the sandwich" can suggest eating was the only thing done with it, while "I ate only the sandwich" clearly means the sandwich was the only thing eaten; unambiguous version: "I ate only the sandwich, and nothing else."
43. "I" should be "me" (object of the preposition 'between'): "Between you and me, I think the test was too hard."
44. A) "The list of items are on the table." (should be 'is', since the subject is 'the list', singular)
45. Corrected: "My friend and I were walking to school when we saw a dog whose collar had come off. We didn't know who it belonged to, so we took it to the police station." (errors: "Me and my friend was" → "My friend and I were"; "seen" → "saw"; "who's" → "whose"; "didnt" → "didn't"; "too" → "to")

3. "wont" should be "won't" (missing apostrophe).
4. A) librarys — should be "library's".
5. "swimmed" should be "swam" (irregular past tense of 'swim').
6. "Its" should be "It's" (contraction of 'it is').
7. An exclamation mark (!) is missing at the end.
8. "plays" should be "play" (to agree with the plural subject 'the two brothers').
9. A) "I seen a shooting star last night.", C) "She don't like spicy food." and E) "We was late for the bus."
10. "Next" should not be capitalised: "...and she lives next door."
11. "Their" should be "They're" (contraction of 'they are').
12. A) restaraunt — should be "restaurant".
13. The comma should be a full stop or semicolon: "The sun was setting. It painted the sky orange."
14. "are" should be "our": "Can you pass me our jacket please?"
15. C) dancing

Applied Practice

16. "go" should be "went": "Last night, we went to the restaurant and ordered pizza."
17. "they're" should be "their": "The boys lost their way home after the match."
18. "Its" should be "It's" and "you're" should be "your": "It's vital to wear your seatbelt in the car."
19. B) missing apostrophe for possession (should be "bird's nest")
20. Missing comma and quotation marks: "She shouted, 'Watch out for the step!'"
21. "was" should be "were": "The performers were nervous before the show began."
22. A) There — should be "They're".
23. "could of" should be "could have": "I could have helped you if you had asked."
24. A) "He cooked dinner and then washes the dishes.", C) "They ran to the bus stop and then catches the bus." and E) "I walk to school and then played with my friends."
25. "effects" should be "affects": "The loud music affects my ability to concentrate."
26. "Me and her" should be "She and I": "She and I are best friends."
27. No, this sentence is correct — the commas correctly separate the three items/actions in a list, including before 'and'.
28. B) comma splice
29. "Its" should be "It's" and "loose" should be "lose": "It's a pity the team lose the final every year."
30. A) "The cat's basket is cosy.", B) "The boy's toys are missing." and C) "Whose coat is this?"

Standard / Advanced

31. Two errors: "Their" should be "There" and "then" should be "than": "There are fewer problems than we expected."
32. Two errors: the comma splice should be a full stop, and "him and his lawyer" should be "he and his lawyer": "The suspect said that he was innocent. He and his lawyer left the courtroom."
33. Two errors: "would have practised" should be "had practised" (third conditional), and "would of" should be "would have": "If the team had practised harder, they would have won the match."
34. Two errors: "have" should be "has" ('neither' is singular), and "they're" should be "their": "Neither of the twins has finished their project."

35. Two errors: "who's" should be "whose", and "its" should be "it's": "The firm, whose profits fell sharply, blamed the economy and said it's too early to recover."

36. Corrected: "Yesterday, my sister and I went to the library to return some books. We didn't realise it was closed, so we waited outside until it opened."

37. A) "She is taller than me." and D) "They're going to the party tonight."

38. (1) "boys" should be "boys'" (plural possessive); (2) "was" should be "were" (to agree with the plural subject 'bikes'); (3) "didnt" should be "didn't" (missing apostrophe); the comma splice should also be corrected to a full stop or semicolon.

39. B) easier

40. A) "She finished her work, then she left."

41. Two errors: "have" should be "has" ('each' is singular), and "there" should be "their": "Each of the players has brought their own water bottle."

42. C) Fewer

43. A) "I love reading; my sister prefers sports.", C) "She packed her bags; she was ready to leave." and E) "The sky was dark; a storm was coming."

44. Corrected: "My brother and I were playing outside when it started to rain heavily. We ran inside quickly and dried ourselves with a towel."

45. 'Who' is a subject pronoun and 'whom' is an object pronoun. In this sentence, the pronoun is the object of 'give...to', so the strictly correct formal form is: "Whom did you give the book to?" (or "To whom did you give the book?").
