Hidden Words (Set B)

Year 4 Pt 2 · Homework Worksheet

Worked Example

Example: Find the hidden word formed across the join between two neighbouring words: "We talked about rain for most of the lesson."

Answer: TRAIN — formed from "abouT" + "RAIN".

Purple — Accessible (15 questions)

1. Find the hidden word across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence (it uses the end of one word and the start of the next): "The pet ant crawled across the picnic table." (3-letter word)
2. Spot the word hidden across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence (it uses the end of one word and the start of the next): "The diva nodded gracefully at the crowd." (3-letter word)
3. A word is hidden across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence: "The judge will award extra points today." Which of these is the hidden word? A) LAW B) SAW C) RAW D) PAW E) CAW
4. Identify the word hidden across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence (it uses the end of one word and the start of the next): "We waited half an hour for the bus." (3-letter word)
5. Work out the word hidden across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence (it uses the end of one word and the start of the next): "The music and lights filled the hall." (3-letter word)
6. A word is hidden across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence: "She won this award for her painting." Which of these is the hidden word? A) PAW B) RAW C) LAW D) SAW E) JAW
7. Pick out the hidden word across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence (it uses the end of one word and the start of the next): "We spotted a deer and a fox in the woods." (3-letter word)
8. Find the hidden word across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence (it uses the end of one word and the start of the next): "The shop items sold out fast this weekend." (3-letter word)
9. In this sentence, more than one word is hidden across the joins between neighbouring words: "We waited half an hour before the team attacked, and the deer awoke." Select ALL of the following that are genuinely hidden words formed at a join (not just whole words already in the sentence). A) FAN (halF + ANhour) B) HALF (just a whole word) C) MAT (teaM + ATtacked) D) RAW (deeR + AWoke) E) HOUR (just a whole word)
10. A word is hidden across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence: "The deer awoke suddenly in the clearing." Which of these is the hidden word? A) SAW B) LAW C) PAW D) RAW E) JAW
11. Spot the word hidden across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence (it uses the end of one word and the start of the next): "Please label this item carefully before you pack it." (3-letter word)
12. Identify the word hidden across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence (it uses the end of one word and the start of the next): "The cab items were left on the back seat." (3-letter word)
13. A word is hidden across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence: "The shop awnings flapped loudly in the wind." Which of these is the hidden word? A) RAW B) PAW C) SAW D) LAW E) JAW
14. Work out the word hidden across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence (it uses the end of one word and the start of the next): "Half items on the shelf were already sold." (3-letter word)
15. Pick out the hidden word across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence (it uses the end of one word and the start of the next): "Tell me which items you want to buy today." (3-letter word)

© PassFrame Tuition — for registered student use

Green — Standard (15 questions)

1. Find the hidden word across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence (it uses the end of one word and the start of the next): "The frog lowered itself slowly into the pond." (4-letter word)
2. Spot the word hidden across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence (it uses the end of one word and the start of the next): "The chief lowered his sword in respect." (4-letter word)
3. A word is hidden across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence: "The food tasted bad raw, so we cooked it." Which of these is the hidden word? A) DRAW B) DRAG C) CLAW D) CROP E) GLOW
4. Identify the word hidden across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence (it uses the end of one word and the start of the next): "Let's discuss this topic again after lunch." (4-letter word)
5. Work out the word hidden across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence (it uses the end of one word and the start of the next): "The road roped off early for the race." (4-letter word)
6. A word is hidden across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence: "The music roped in a huge crowd at the fair." Which of these is the hidden word? A) CROP B) CHOP C) DROP D) CORN E) TRAP
7. Pick out the hidden word across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence (it uses the end of one word and the start of the next): "Can you give me a music hint for this round?" (4-letter word)
8. Find the hidden word across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence (it uses the end of one word and the start of the next): "We appreciated this kind gesture very much." (4-letter word)
9. In this sentence, more than one word is hidden across the joins between neighbouring words: "The map showed half lagoon, half beach, and we admired the shop layout before the food tasted bad raw." Select ALL of the following that are genuinely hidden words formed at a join (not just whole words already in the sentence). A) FLAG (halF + LAGoon) B) LAGOON (just a whole word) C) PLAY (shoP + LAYout) D) LAYOUT (just a whole word) E) DRAW (baD + RAW)
10. A word is hidden across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence: "I really love this pink jacket you bought." Which of these is the hidden word? A) SPIN B) SKIN C) TWIN D) GRIN E) SHIN
11. Spot the word hidden across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence (it uses the end of one word and the start of the next): "We talked about winter holidays all lesson." (4-letter word)
12. Identify the word hidden across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence (it uses the end of one word and the start of the next): "The frog ring toy squeaked loudly in the bath." (4-letter word)
13. A word is hidden across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence: "It was a classic hopeful tune, played on repeat." Which of these is the hidden word? A) CHOP B) CHIP C) CROP D) SHOP E) DROP
14. Work out the word hidden across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence (it uses the end of one word and the start of the next): "Please oil this hinge before it squeaks again." (4-letter word)
15. Pick out the hidden word across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence (it uses the end of one word and the start of the next): "He played a classic lawyer in the school play." (4-letter word)

Standard / Advanced (15 questions)

1. Find the hidden word across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence (it uses the end of one word and the start of the next): "The cheese almost aged to perfection in the cellar." (5 or 6-letter word)
2. Spot the word hidden across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence (it uses the end of one word and the start of the next): "The dog lazed around in the warm sun all day." (5 or 6-letter word)
3. A word is hidden across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence: "Let's try this take on the recipe for the bake sale." Which of these is the hidden word? A) STAKE B) SPACE C) STONE D) SPARE E) SPOKE
4. Identify the word hidden across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence (it uses the end of one word and the start of the next): "We admired this harpist greatly at the wedding." (5 or 6-letter word)

© PassFrame Tuition — for registered student use

5. Work out the word hidden across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence (it uses the end of one word and the start of the next): "Please place this tray on the counter carefully." (5 or 6-letter word)

6. A word is hidden across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence: "The party had an epic rave that lasted all night." Which of these is the hidden word? A) CRAVE B) GRAVE C) BRAVE D) TRADE E) GRACE

7. Pick out the hidden word across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence (it uses the end of one word and the start of the next): "We said this prayer before the meal began." (5 or 6-letter word)

8. Find the hidden word across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence (it uses the end of one word and the start of the next): "We turned down the shop lane to reach the bakery." (5 or 6-letter word)

9. In this sentence, more than one word is hidden across the joins between neighbouring words: "We turned down the shop lane where the dog raced past cheese that had almost aged to perfection." Select ALL of the following that are genuinely hidden words formed at a join (not just whole words already in the sentence). A) PLANE (shoP + LANE) B) LANE (just a whole word) C) GRACE (doG + RACEd) D) RACED (just a whole word) E) STAGE (almoST + AGEd)

10. A word is hidden across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence: "The bananas looked almost ripe enough to eat." Which of these is the hidden word? A) STRIPE B) STRIDE C) STRIKE D) SCRAPE E) SPRITE

11. Spot the word hidden across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence (it uses the end of one word and the start of the next): "Let's keep this pace for the rest of the race." (5 or 6-letter word)

12. Identify the word hidden across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence (it uses the end of one word and the start of the next): "The dog raced across the yard every morning." (5 or 6-letter word)

13. A word is hidden across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence: "I knew that he melted the chocolate too soon." Which of these is the hidden word? A) THEME B) THESE C) THEIR D) THEFT E) TEASE

14. Work out the word hidden across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence (it uses the end of one word and the start of the next): "The shop rice selection was excellent this week." (5 or 6-letter word)

15. Pick out the hidden word across the join between two neighbouring words in this sentence (it uses the end of one word and the start of the next): "We learned about race day traditions in history." (5 or 6-letter word)

© PassFrame Tuition — for registered student use