PassFrame tuition

Mixed English Practice

Year 4 Pt 2 — Mark Scheme — Lesson Worksheet & Homework (tutor copy)

Lesson Worksheet — Answers

Easy / Standard

1. D — adverb

2. Example: little / tiny

3. The bird's nest was empty.

4. personification

5. dont -> doesn't

6. Example: new / young

7. B — knight

8. seperated -> separated

9. A and C (magnificent and ancient are adjectives; carefully is an adverb, ran is a verb)

10. After the match, the players shook hands.

11. Example: exhausted / weary / sleepy

12. B — Her voice was as sweet as music

13. Me and her -> She and I

14. A and C

15. Example: narrow

Standard

1. D — pronoun

2. Example: terrified / petrified

3. She had one wish: to travel the world.

4. Onomatopoeia — "hissed" and "whistled" imitate the real sounds the kettle makes, making the description vivid

5. was -> were

6. Example: dishonest / deceitful

7. A — Since

8. "It's raining outside" is correct — "it's" is short for "it is", while "its" shows possession and would not make sense here

9. A and C (swarm and crowd are collective nouns; bees and noise are not)

10. The boys' coats were hung up.

11. Example: horrified / panic-stricken

12. B — The exam was a mountain to climb

13. should of -> should have

14. A and C

15. Example: departure

Standard / Hard

1. B — preposition

2. Example: eyed / scrutinised / glared at

3. The teacher, who had taught for thirty years, retired that summer.

4. Personification — the city is given the human ability to "sleep" (or not),

6. Example: turbulent / frenzied / chaotic

7. B — that

8. embarassed -> embarrassed; the word has a double 'r' and a double 's' — a useful trick is to remember "embarrASSment"

9. A and C (correctly use "were"; B and D wrongly use "was")

11. Example: stealthily / furtively

12. B — The garden slept beneath a blanket of snow

13. they will announce -> it will announce; "committee" is being treated as singular here ("has voted"), so the following pronoun should also be singular for consistency

14. A and C ("physics" and "news" look plural but are treated as singular emphasising how constantly busy and lively it always is

5. Her and I -> She and I; "she" (not "her") is needed as it's part of the subject of the sentence

10. The recipe needed flour, sugar, eggs and butter.

15. Example: eager / willing nouns; B and D wrongly use plural verbs)

Homework — Answers

Easy / Standard

1. D — adverb

2. Example: pleasant / lovely / kind

3. The teacher's desk was covered in papers.

4. personification

5. don't -> doesn't

6. Example: dirty

7. B — cat

8. definately -> definitely

9. A and C (delicious and mysterious are adjectives; sadly is an adverb, walked is a verb)

10. Once the bell rang, the children lined up.

11. Example: hilarious / amusing

12. B — Her smile was like sunshine

13. Me and my brother -> My brother and I

14. A and C

15. Example: end / finish

Standard

1. D — pronoun

2. Example: dreadful / atrocious / appalling

3. He had one goal: to win the championship.

4. Onomatopoeia — "coughed" and "spluttered" imitate the struggling sound of the engine, making it feel almost alive

5. was -> were

6. Example: cowardly

7. A — While

8. "It's raining outside" is correct — "it's" is short for "it is", while "its" shows possession

9. A and C (fleet and army are collective nouns; ships and soldier are not)

10. The girls' bikes were left outside.

11. Example: disastrous / catastrophic

12. B — The city was a rock concert, blaring and bright

13. might of -> might have

14. A and C

15. Example: failure

Standard / Advanced

1. B — preposition

2. Example: devoured / gobbled / wolfed down

3. My uncle, who lives in Scotland, is visiting us this weekend.

4. Personification/metaphor — guilt is described as physically "gnawing", making an abstract emotion feel like a persistent, painful, physical force

5. Her and I -> She and I; "she" (not "her") is needed as it's part of the subject of the sentence

6. Example: arrogant / conceited / pompous

7. B — which

8. reccomended -> recommended; it has one 'c' and two 'm's — a useful trick is "recoMMend" has double M

9. A and C (correctly use "were" for the subjunctive; B and D wrongly use "was")

10. The recipe needed flour, sugar, eggs and butter.

11. Example: gingerly / warily

12. B — The storm hurled itself against the coast

13. their -> its; "orchestra" is being treated as singular here ("has tuned"), so the following pronoun should also be singular for consistency

14. A and C ("athletics" and "furniture" — athletics looks plural but is treated as singular; furniture is an uncountable noun, always singular;

15. Example: eager / willing

B and D wrongly use plural verbs)

5. Him and me -> He and I; subject pronouns (he, I) must be used as the subject of a sentence, not object pronouns (him, me)

10. She collected three things: stamps, coins and postcards.

15. Example: extraordinary / remarkable / exceptional