Sentences & Clauses

Year 4 Pt 2 — 11+ Lesson Worksheet (PassFrame Tuition)

Worked examples — tutor talks through these first

A) Easy: Is this a simple sentence, and why? "The dog barked."

Method & answer: Yes — it has one clause with a single subject (dog) and one verb (barked), expressing one complete idea.

B) Standard: Identify the two clauses in this compound sentence and the conjunction joining them: "I wanted to stay, but I had to leave."

Method & answer: Clause 1: I wanted to stay; Clause 2: I had to leave; joined by the coordinating conjunction "but".

C) Advanced: In this complex sentence, identify the main clause and the subordinate clause: "Although it was raining, we went outside."

Method & answer: Main clause = we went outside (can stand alone); Subordinate clause = Although it was raining (cannot stand alone, and depends on the main clause).

Easy / Standard — work through together, answer 5 in the lesson 15 min (1 min per question)

1. Is this a simple sentence: "The children ran to the playground."?

2. Identify the subject and verb in: "The baker baked fresh bread."

3. Is this a compound sentence: "I like apples, and I like oranges."?

4. Identify the coordinating conjunction: "He was tired, but he kept working."

5. Is this a simple or compound sentence: "The sun set, and the stars appeared."?

6. Identify the two clauses in: "We watched the film, and we ate popcorn."

7. Is this a complete sentence or a fragment: "Running quickly down the street."?

8. Identify the subject in: "My little sister loves painting."

9. Is this a simple sentence: "The dog and the cat slept."?

10. Identify the verb in: "The teacher explained the lesson clearly."

11. Is this a compound sentence: "She opened the door."? A) yes B) no, it is simple C) no, it is complex D) cannot tell

12. Identify the coordinating conjunction: "Do you want tea or coffee?"

13. Combine into one simple sentence: "The boy ran. The boy jumped."

14. Select ALL the sentences below that are FRAGMENTS (not complete sentences): A) Running quickly down the street. B) The dog barked. C) Tired and hungry after the match. D) She smiled. E) Because it was cold.

15. Is this sentence simple, compound, or complex: "It was raining, so we stayed inside."?

Standard — work through together, answer 5 in the lesson 15 min (1 min per question)

1. Identify the subordinate clause: "Because it was cold, we wore coats."

6. Is this sentence simple, compound, or complex: "We left early because we wanted good

11. Identify the relative pronoun that starts the subordinate clause: "The house that we visited was seats."? A) simple B) compound C) complex D) none of these

2. Is this sentence simple, compound, or complex: "Although she was nervous, she performed well."?

3. Identify the main clause: "The film, which starts at seven, is a thriller."

4. Combine using a subordinating conjunction: "It started to rain. We went inside."

5. Identify the relative clause: "The teacher who taught us maths has retired."

7. Identify the two independent clauses: "The bell rang, so the students lined up."

8. Rewrite as a complex sentence starting with a subordinate clause: "We stayed inside because it was raining."

9. Identify the subordinating conjunction: "She finished her homework before she watched TV."

10. Is the clause "When the alarm sounded" main or subordinate in: "When the alarm sounded, everyone left the building."?

huge."

12. Combine into a complex sentence using "because": "The match was cancelled. It was raining heavily."

13. Is this a compound or complex sentence: "He trained hard, yet he did not win."? A) compound B) complex C) simple D) compound-complex

14. Select ALL the sentences below that are COMPLEX (contain a subordinate clause): A) Although she was nervous, she performed well. B) The bell rang, so the students lined up. C) Since the shop was closed, we went home. D) He trained hard, yet he did not win. E) The house that we visited was huge.

15. Explain why "Whenever it snows" is not a complete sentence on its own.

Standard / Hard — work through together, answer 5 in the lesson ⏱ 15 min (1 min per question)

1. Explain why "The girl who won the race, she was thrilled" contains an error, and correct it.

2. In "The book that I bought yesterday, which was on sale, was a bestseller," identify both subordinate clauses.

3. Explain the difference between a restrictive and non-restrictive relative clause, using: "The students who studied hard passed." vs "My sister, who studied hard, passed."

4. Identify and correct the comma splice: "It was raining, we stayed inside."

6. Explain why "Running down the road and shouting loudly" is a fragment, and add a subject and verb to make it a complete sentence.

7. In "The dog, which had been missing for days, finally came home", explain the effect of removing the middle clause.

8. Identify the main clause and both subordinate clauses in: "Although he was scared, he entered the haunted house because his friends dared him."

9. Explain why this sentence is grammatically incorrect and correct it: "Despite of the rain, we played outside."

11. Identify the type of clause and its function: "What she said" in "What she said surprised everyone."

12. Explain why a semicolon could replace the conjunction in this compound sentence, and rewrite it: "The rain stopped, and the sun came out."

13. In "The scientist, whose research changed medicine, won the award", identify the subordinate clause and explain what type it is.

14. Select ALL the sentences below that are COMPOUND-COMPLEX (at least two main clauses AND a subordinate clause): A) Because she was tired, and because it was late, she went to bed early. B) The rain stopped, and the sun came out. C) Although he was scared, he entered, but his friends had already gone in. D) The scientist, whose research changed medicine, won the award. E) It was raining, so we stayed inside, but the storm soon passed.

5. In "Because she was tired, and because it was late, she went to bed early," identify how many subordinate clauses there are and what they have in common.

10. Rewrite this compound sentence as a complex sentence with the same meaning: "The alarm rang, and everyone evacuated the building."

15. Explain the difference between these two sentences: "The players who were injured did not train." and "The players, who were injured, did not train."