PassFrame tuition

Word Classes II

Year 5 Accelerated — Mark Scheme — Lesson Worksheet & Homework (tutor copy)

Lesson Worksheet — Answers

Easy / Standard

1. He

2. They

3. A — She

4. They

5. and

6. but

7. on

8. under

9. A, B, C and E (in, on, under and beside are prepositions; and is a conjunction)

10. A, B and C (and, but and or are conjunctions; under and in are prepositions)

11. It

12. because (conjunction)

13. in

14. We

15. because

Standard

1. theirs

2. ourselves — it emphasises that we did it personally (an 'emphatic' use), not that the action was done to us

3. reflexive — the subject and object are the same person and the action is genuinely done to oneself

4. subordinating

5. A — coordinating

6. for, and, nor, but, or, yet, so

7. through

8. between

9. A, B and C (between, beneath and among are prepositions of position; although is a conjunction, so is a conjunction)

10. Although / Though

11. me — an object pronoun is needed; test by removing 'you and'

12. not always — it can take a singular verb (as one unit) or a plural verb (as separate individuals), depending on meaning

13. beneath / under

14. which

15. 'who' is a subject pronoun (does the action); 'whom' is an object pronoun (receives the action)

Standard / Hard

1. preposition (it has an object, 'the hill', following it)

2. adverb (no object follows; it modifies the verb 'looked')

3. whose

4. formally 'their' should agree in number with the singular 'pupil' (traditional rule wants 'his or her'), though 'their' is now widely accepted in everyday use

5. either … or

6. neither … nor

7. C — conjunction (subordinating — it introduces a clause, 'she moved away')

8. 'He and I are best friends.'

9. down

4. which

5. 'He and I went to the shop.' (subject pronouns are needed, not object pronouns)

9. A, C and E (either…or, neither…nor and both…and are correlative pairs; whereas and since are single subordinating conjunctions)

10. preposition

14. Although

15. 'between you and me' — prepositions take object pronouns, so 'me' is correct, not 'I'

Homework — Answers

Easy / Standard

1. She

2. We

3. A — He

4. They

5. and

6. yet

7. on

8. behind

9. A, B, C and E (on, behind, under and beside are prepositions; yet is a conjunction)

10. A, B and C (yet, or and because are conjunctions; behind and under are prepositions)

11. He

12. because (conjunction)

13. under

14. We

15. although

Standard

1. theirs

2. themselves — it emphasises that they did the painting personally, not that the action was done to them

3. reflexive — the subject and object refer to the same person and the action is genuinely done to himself

4. subordinating

5. A — coordinating

6. for, and, nor, but, or, yet, so

7. across

8. between

9. A, B and C (between, beneath and among are prepositions of position; but and so are conjunctions)

10. Although / Though

11. me — an object pronoun is needed; test by removing 'you and'

12. not always — it can take a singular verb (as one unit) or a plural verb (as separate individuals), depending on the meaning intended

13. on

14. which

15. 'who' is a subject pronoun (does the action); 'whom' is an object pronoun (receives the action)

Standard / Advanced

1. adverb (no object follows; it modifies the verb 'climbed')

2. adverb (no object follows; it modifies the verb 'went')

6. any suitable preposition, e.g. under / behind

7. 'She and I went to the cinema.'

11. 'My friends and I are going to the fair.' (pronoun order/case and subject–verb agreement both needed correcting)

12. preposition — it shows the relationship (accompaniment) between 'she' and 'mother'

3. whose

4. neither … nor

5. 'than me' is the commonly accepted informal choice ('than I', as in 'than I am', is the strict formal version)

8. 'so that' — a subordinating conjunction showing purpose

9. subordinating conjunction: Although; relative pronoun: who

10. her

13. correlative conjunction: either … or; subordinating conjunction: while

14. A, C and E (either…or, neither…nor and both…and are correlative pairs; although and unless are single subordinating conjunctions)

15. 'This is a photo of you and me.' (the preposition 'of' takes an object pronoun, 'me', not 'I')