PassFrame tuition

Sentences & Clauses

Year 5 Accelerated — Homework ⏱ 45 min

Worked example — read this through before you start

Worked example: Simple, compound or complex? The cat slept, but the dog barked all night.

Method & answer: compound — two main clauses ('the cat slept' and 'the dog barked all night') are joined by the coordinating conjunction 'but'.

Easy / Standard — work through together, answer 5 in the lesson ⏱ 15 min (1 min per question)

1. Simple, compound or complex? The rain stopped.

2. Simple, compound or complex? Dogs bark and howl.

3. Simple, compound or complex? She cooked dinner, and he washed up.

4. How many clauses does a simple sentence have?

5. Which conjunction below can join two main clauses: 'or', 'although' or 'when'?

6. Simple, compound or complex? He likes maths but not science. A) simple B) compound C) complex D) none of these

7. What is the main clause in: Since it was sunny, we played outside.

8. What is the subordinate clause in: Since it was sunny, we played outside.

9. Can a main (independent) clause stand alone as a full sentence?

10. Simple, compound or complex? The man who fixed our car is friendly.

11. Name the subject in: The tall boy laughed loudly.

12. Name the verb in: The tall boy laughed loudly.

13. Simple, compound or complex? We played chess.

14. Select ALL the sentences below that are COMPOUND: A) Dogs bark and howl. B) She cooked dinner, and he washed up. C) He likes maths but not science. D) The man who fixed our car is friendly. E) We played chess.

15. Give one coordinating conjunction used to join clauses in a compound sentence.

Standard — work through together, answer 5 in the lesson ⏱ 15 min (1 min per question)

1. Is this sentence simple, compound or complex? Exhausted after the race, he collapsed.

2. Identify the subordinate clause: The film that we watched was thrilling.

6. Is 'before' being used as a preposition or a subordinating conjunction in: We left before lunch? A) preposition B) conjunction C) pronoun D) adverb

7. Is 'before' being used as a preposition or a subordinating conjunction in: We left before the film had finished?

11. Explain the difference between a restrictive and a non-restrictive relative clause, using commas as your clue.

12. Rewrite as one sentence using a non-restrictive relative clause: 'My sister lives in York.' 'She is a teacher.' (only one sister)

3. Explain why the clause in the sentence above is 'restrictive' (defining).

4. Is this sentence simple, compound or complex? The dog, worn out from the walk, slept all afternoon.

5. What function does the subordinate clause perform in: Whoever finishes first wins a prize?

8. Combine into one complex sentence using a relative pronoun: 'The author wrote a bestseller.' 'She grew up in Leeds.'

9. Identify the main clause and the subordinate clause: Wherever you go, I will follow.

10. Is this sentence simple, compound or complex? The wind howled, the rain lashed, and the trees swayed.

13. Is this sentence simple, compound or complex? To catch the train, we left early.

14. Select ALL the sentences below that are COMPLEX (contain a subordinate clause): A) Exhausted after the race, he collapsed. B) The wind howled, the rain lashed, and the trees swayed. C) The film that we watched was thrilling. D) Wherever you go, I will follow. E) To catch the train, we left early.

15. What is an appositive phrase, and is it a clause? Give an example.

Standard / Advanced — work through together, answer 5 in the lesson ⏱ 15 min (1 min per question)

1. Simple, compound or complex? I cleaned my room, and then I did my homework, but I still felt bored.

2. What makes a sentence compound-complex?

3. Pick out the embedded clause: The teacher, who was very strict, gave us extra homework.

4. Simple, compound or complex? Smiling brightly, she accepted the award.

5. Identify the relative pronoun: The house, whose roof was damaged, needed repairs.

6. Combine using 'because' into a complex sentence: 'The trip was cancelled.' 'The weather was too dangerous.'

7. Rewrite as a compound-complex sentence: 'Although he was late.' 'He caught the bus.' 'He missed the meeting.'

8. Identify and explain the clause type of 'which I borrowed from the library' in: The book, which I borrowed from the library, was fascinating.

9. Correct this run-on sentence by adding suitable punctuation/conjunction: 'It started to rain we quickly went inside.'

10. Read: 'Exhausted after the match, the players, who had trained all week, finally rested.' Identify the

11. Identify and explain why this is a complex sentence: 'Whenever she visits, she brings a gift.'

12. Correct this sentence fragment so it is a complete sentence: 'Because he forgot his homework.'

13. Combine into one compound-complex sentence: 'She trained hard.' 'She missed the final because she was ill.'

14. Select ALL the sentences below that are COMPOUND-COMPLEX: A) Whenever she visits, she brings a gift. B) It started to rain, so we quickly went inside, although we hadn't finished. C) The house, whose roof was damaged, needed repairs. D) She trained hard, but she missed the final because she was ill. E) Smiling brightly, she accepted the award.

15. Identify the main clause and the subordinate clause: The girl smiled as she opened her present.

two subordinate elements.