PassFrame tuition

Sentences & Clauses

Year 5 Accelerated — 11+ Lesson Worksheet (PassFrame Tuition)

Worked examples — tutor talks through these first

A) Easy: Is this sentence simple, compound or complex? The dog barked.
Method & answer: It has one clause (one subject + one verb), so it is simple.

B) Standard: Is this sentence simple, compound or complex? I like tea, but my sister likes coffee.
Method & answer: Two main (independent) clauses are joined by the coordinating conjunction 'but', so it is compound.

C) Advanced: Is this sentence simple, compound or complex? Although it was raining, we went for a walk.
Method & answer: 'Although it was raining' is a subordinate clause — it cannot stand alone as a sentence. It is joined to the main clause 'we went for a walk', making the sentence complex.

Easy / Standard — work through together, answer 5 in the lesson ⏱ 15 min (1 min per question)

1. Simple, compound or complex? The sun was shining.

2. Simple, compound or complex? Birds sing and fly.

3. Simple, compound or complex? I ran home, and I locked the door.

4. How many clauses are in a simple sentence?

5. Which conjunction joins two main clauses to form a compound sentence: 'and', 'because' or 'although'?

6. Simple, compound or complex? She likes dogs but not cats. A) simple B) compound C) complex D) none of these

7. What is the main clause in: Because it was late, we went home.

8. What is the subordinate clause in: Because it was late, we went home.

9. Can a subordinate clause stand alone as a full sentence?

10. Simple, compound or complex? The boy who won the race is my friend.

11. Name the subject in: The little girl skipped happily.

12. Name the verb in: The little girl skipped happily.

13. Simple, compound or complex? We ate lunch.

14. Select ALL the sentences below that are COMPOUND: A) Birds sing and fly. B) I ran home, and I locked the door. C) She likes dogs but not cats. D) The boy who won the race is my friend. E) We ate lunch.

15. Give one coordinating conjunction used to join clauses in a compound sentence.

Standard — work through together, answer 5 in the lesson ⏱ 15 min (1 min per question)

1. Is this sentence simple, compound or complex? Having eaten breakfast, she left for school.

2. Identify the subordinate clause:

6. Is 'since' being used as a preposition of time or a subordinating conjunction in: I haven't seen her since Monday? A) preposition B) conjunction C) pronoun D) adverb

7. Is 'since' being used as a

11. Explain the difference between a restrictive and a non-restrictive relative clause, using commas as your clue.

12. Rewrite as one sentence using a

The book that she recommended was brilliant.

3. Explain why the clause in the sentence above is called a 'restrictive' (defining) relative clause.

4. Is this sentence simple, compound or complex? The teacher, tired after a long day, sat down.

5. What function does the subordinate clause perform in: What she said surprised everyone?

preposition of time or a subordinating conjunction in: I haven't seen her since she moved away?

8. Combine into one complex sentence using a relative pronoun: 'The scientist won an award.' 'She discovered the cure.'

9. Identify the main clause and the subordinate clause: Whatever you decide, I will support you.

10. Is this sentence simple, compound or complex? The dog barked, the cat hissed, and the bird flew off.

non-restrictive relative clause: 'My uncle lives in Bristol.' 'He is a doctor.' (only one uncle)

13. Is this sentence simple, compound or complex? To win the match, the team trained every day.

14. Select ALL the sentences below that are COMPLEX (contain a subordinate clause): A) Having eaten breakfast, she left for school. B) The dog barked, the cat hissed, and the bird flew off. C) The book that she recommended was brilliant. D) Whatever you decide, I will support you. E) To win the match, the team trained every day.

15. What is an appositive phrase, and is it a clause? Give an example.

Standard / Hard — work through together, answer 5 in the lesson ⏱ 15 min (1 min per question)

1. Simple, compound or complex? I finished my homework, and then I watched TV, but I fell asleep.

2. What is a compound-complex sentence?

3. Is this compound, complex or compound-complex? Although it was raining, we went outside, and we got soaked.

4. Identify the subordinate clause in: Although it was raining, we went outside, and we got soaked.

6. What is an embedded (relative) clause?

7. Pick out the embedded clause: The book, which was very old, fell apart.

8. Simple, compound or complex? Running quickly, she caught the bus. A) simple B) compound C) complex D) compound-complex

9. What is a non-finite clause? Give an example type.

11. Rewrite as a complex sentence using 'because': 'The match was cancelled.' 'It was raining heavily.'

12. Is this a compound or a complex sentence: He tidied his room, then he did his homework, and finally he relaxed.

13. Identify the relative pronoun starting the embedded clause: The man, whose car was stolen, called the police.

14. Select ALL the sentences below that are COMPOUND-COMPLEX: A) Although it was raining, we went outside, and we got soaked. B) Running quickly, she caught the bus. C) He tidied his room, then he did his homework, and finally he relaxed, although he felt tired. D) The book, which was very old, fell apart. E) Since the roads were icy, the bus was late, so we walked instead.

5. Identify the two main clauses in: Although it was raining, we went outside, and we got soaked.

10. Simple, compound or complex? Having finished her dinner, Mia went outside to play.

15. Combine into one compound-complex sentence: 'Although she was nervous.' 'She walked on stage.' 'The audience cheered.'