PassFrame tuition

Commas & Apostrophes

Year 5 Accelerated — Homework ⏱ 45 min

Worked example — read this through before you start

Worked example: Punctuate the possessive: The suns (one sun) rays were warm.

Method & answer: One sun owns the rays, so add apostrophe + s. Answer: The sun's rays were warm.

Easy / Standard — work through together, answer 5 in the lesson ⏱ 15 min (1 min per question)

1. Add the apostrophe: The boys (one boy) coat.
2. Add the apostrophe: The birds (one bird) nest.
3. Write the contraction for 'is not'.
4. Which option correctly punctuates the possessive: "the mans hat" (one man)? A) the man's hat B) the mans' hat C) the mans hat D) the man,s hat
5. Write the contraction for 'you are'.
6. Add commas: I need milk eggs and bread.
7. Add commas: He wore a coat hat scarf and gloves.
8. Punctuate the possessive: The mans (one man) hat blew away.
9. Select ALL the sentences below with the apostrophe used CORRECTLY: A) The doctor's office was closed. B) The doctors' office was closed (one doctor). C) He's coming later. D) Amy's pencil is blue. E) Amys pencil is blue.
10. What does an apostrophe show in 'won't'?
11. Write the contraction for 'we will'.
12. Add commas: No thank you I'm full.
13. Punctuate the possessive: The doctors (one doctor) office was closed.
14. Write the contraction for 'he is'.
15. Add a comma where needed: Before dinner we washed our hands.

Standard — work through together, answer 5 in the lesson ⏱ 15 min (1 min per question)

1. Punctuate the possessive: three days (plural, time expression) rest.
2. Punctuate the possessive: a moment (singular, time expression) peace.
6. Punctuate for parenthesis: 'The necklace which she inherited from her grandmother was priceless.' (only one necklace)
7. Select ALL the sentences below where the comma correctly marks a NON-RESTRICTIVE (extra, non-essential) clause: A) The necklace, which she inherited, was priceless. B) The necklace that she inherited was priceless. C) My aunt, who lives abroad, is visiting. D) The car that he bought was expensive. E) My
11. Explain why the Oxford (serial) comma can prevent ambiguity, using: 'We invited the twins, a clown and a magician.'
12. Explain why no commas are needed here: 'The necklace that she inherited from her grandmother was priceless.' (one of several necklaces)

sister, who lives in York, is a teacher.

3. Choose correctly and explain: The bird flapped (its/it's) wings frantically.

4. Choose correctly and explain: (Its/It's) almost time to leave.

5. Add a comma to avoid ambiguity: 'I love you Mum.'

8. Punctuate the possessive for a name ending in a hissing sound: Chris (one boy) essay.

9. Correct the comma splice using a semicolon: 'The match ended, the crowd cheered.'

10. Add a comma where needed for a fronted adverbial: After a while everyone calmed down.

13. Write the contraction for 'we would' and explain why it's identical in form to another contraction.

14. Punctuate the possessive: the buses (plural, ends in -es) engines.

15. Add a comma before 'as well' only if needed, and explain the modern rule: 'She wanted to come as well.'

Standard / Advanced — work through together, answer 5 in the lesson ⏱ 15 min (1 min per question)

1. Punctuate the possessive for a name ending in s: Thomas (one boy) rucksack.

2. Punctuate joint possession: 'Sam and Ella project' (they share one project).

3. Punctuate separate possession: 'Sam and Ella bikes' (they each own a bike).

4. Is 'its' ever used as a contraction? Explain.

5. Name the punctuation mark used before 'and' in a list such as: red, white, and blue.

6. Correct this sentence: 'The girls bags were left on the buses roof.' (more than one girl; one bus)

7. Punctuate: 'the childrens (plural, no s) playground'.

8. Add commas to this fronted adverbial: Without warning the fire alarm went off.

9. Correct the comma splice: 'The shop was shut, we went home.'

10. Select ALL the statements below that are TRUE about apostrophes: A) 'its' (possessive) never takes an apostrophe. B) Plurals like CDs and decades like the 1980s never take an apostrophe. C) 'it's' always means 'it is' or 'it has'. D) Possessive pronouns like 'yours' and 'hers' take an apostrophe before the s. E) A singular name ending in s (e.g. Thomas) can take 's to show possession.

11. Punctuate correctly using an apostrophe of omission: 'the class of 05' (short for 2005).

12. Explain the comma difference between: 'The players who trained hardest were picked' (only some trained hardest) and 'The players, who trained hardest, were picked' (all of them trained hardest).

13. Correct the apostrophe: 'The two foxes (more than one fox) den was hidden.'

14. Add commas where needed: 'After the whistle blew the players exhausted after the long match walked off.'

15. Punctuate the possessive for a plural noun not ending in s: 'the women (plural, no s) coats'.