PassFrame tuition

Advanced Punctuation

Year 5 Accelerated — Homework ⏱ 45 min

Worked example — read this through before you start

Worked example: Punctuate the speech: she asked can we go now.

Method & answer: The reporting clause takes a comma, speech marks wrap the exact words, and the question mark goes inside them. Answer: She asked, "Can we go now?"

Easy / Standard — work through together, answer 5 in the lesson ⏱ 15 min (1 min per question)

1. Punctuate the speech: He said I am cold.

2. Punctuate the speech: Are you ready asked Mia.

3. Does a new line start for a new speaker in dialogue? A) Yes, always B) No, never C) Only if they shout D) Only in poems

4. Where does the comma go in: "I found it" said Leo.?

5. Punctuate: she shouted look out.

6. Add a colon: There is one rule you must follow be kind.

7. Where is a question mark placed in relation to the speech marks, when it's part of what was said? A) Always outside B) Always inside C) It depends D) Only in formal writing

8. Punctuate: Dad whispered be quiet.

9. Select ALL the punctuation marks that can correctly introduce a list or explanation: A) colon B) semicolon C) comma D) dash E) question mark

10. Punctuate: the coach asked who scored that goal.

11. Does the first word inside speech marks start with a capital letter? A) Yes, always B) No, never C) Only if it's a name D) Only for shouting

12. Punctuate: no thanks he said im full.

13. Add a colon to introduce an explanation: I know why he is late he missed the bus.

14. Punctuate: she said be brave.

15. How strong is a semicolon compared to a comma and a full stop? A) Weaker than a comma, stronger than a full stop B) Stronger than a comma, weaker than a full stop C) Stronger than both D) Weaker than both

Standard — work through together, answer 5 in the lesson ⏱ 15 min (1 min per question)

1. Punctuate correctly, choosing between a colon and a semicolon: 'There was only one explanation ___ someone had forgotten to lock the door.' A) comma B) semicolon C)

6. Explain the difference between how a dash and a pair of commas can both set off extra information, using: 'The dog --- muddy from the park --- jumped on the sofa.'

11. Punctuate correctly, including the exclamation mark's position: 'run he shouted the bridge is collapsing'

colon D) dash only

2. Punctuate correctly, choosing between a colon and a semicolon: 'The concert was incredible ___ we stayed until the very end.' A) comma B) semicolon C) colon D) full stop

3. Explain why this semicolon use is wrong, and correct it: 'Because he was tired; he went to bed early.'

4. Punctuate this sentence containing a nested quotation: 'The coach said, Remember the saying: Practice makes perfect.'

5. Punctuate this list, using semicolons because the items already contain commas: 'The bag contained a jumper knitted by hand a book borrowed from the library and a phone fully charged.'

7. Which correctly rewrites this reported question? 'She asked would he help her.' A) She asked if he would help her. B) She asked, would he help her? C) She asked: would he help her. D) She asked; would he help her.

8. Punctuate the ellipsis correctly to show trailing off: 'I suppose we could try but'

9. Select ALL of these sentences that correctly use a colon to introduce a single explanation: A) She had one wish: pass the exam. B) She had one wish, pass the exam. C) There was only one thing left to do: run. D) Her favourite subjects are: maths, art and drama. E) The concert was incredible: we stayed until the very end.

10. Correct this run-on sentence using any appropriate method: 'The lights flickered the power cut out everyone gasped.'

12. Why is using a comma instead of a colon here a common mistake? A) A comma should never appear after 'are' B) It should use a colon or no punctuation at all, not a comma, since 'are' is directly followed by its list C) It needs a semicolon D) It needs a dash — sentence: 'Her favourite subjects are, maths, art and drama.'

13. Punctuate this sentence with a semicolon to show a strong contrast between two related ideas: 'Some students prefer working alone others enjoy group work.'

14. Explain why this speech punctuation is wrong, and correct it: 'He said "I'm finished.""

15. Explain the stylistic difference between ending with a colon and ending with a dash to introduce a single dramatic word, using: 'There was only one thing left to do ___ run.'

Standard / Advanced — work through together, answer 5 in the lesson ⏱ 15 min (1 min per question)

1. Explain the difference in use between a colon and a semicolon in one sentence.

2. What is wrong with 'She owns two pets, a cat and a dog.'? A) Nothing B) It needs a colon instead of the comma, to introduce the list of pets C) It needs a semicolon D) It needs quotation marks

6. Punctuate, with the speech split by a reporting clause: I think he said we should stop now.

7. Punctuate this list with semicolons because the items contain commas: The prizes went to Leo age 9 Mia age 10 and Sam age 11.

11. What is the correct punctuation to introduce direct speech after a reporting verb like 'replied' or 'muttered'? A) A colon B) A comma before the opening speech marks C) A semicolon D) No punctuation

12. Correct the punctuation: 'My favourite subjects are: art, music and drama.'

3. Is it correct to capitalise the word after a colon when introducing a simple list? A) Yes, always B) Generally no, unless it's a proper noun or the list items are full sentences C) Only if the list has 3+ items D) Only on the first list of the page

4. Punctuate the quotation within a quotation: He said, The sign says, Do not feed the ducks.

5. Select ALL the sentences below where the colon is used INCORRECTLY: A) My hobbies include: football, reading and chess. B) My hobbies include football, reading and chess. C) My favourite subjects are: art, music and drama. D) She had one wish: pass the exam. E) The prizes went to: Leo, Mia and Sam.

8. Correct this run-on: 'The lights went out, everyone panicked, the teacher stayed calm.'

9. Why is a semicolon (not a comma) needed in 'The bus was late, we missed the start of the film.'? A) A comma alone creates a comma splice joining two independent clauses; a semicolon correctly joins them B) Commas can never join sentences C) It needs a colon instead D) Nothing is wrong

10. Punctuate: watch out he yelled the ice is cracking.

13. Punctuate: can I stay up late he asked mum said no.

14. Explain the difference between using a dash and a colon here: 'There was only one answer --- run' vs 'There was only one answer: run.'

15. Combine correctly using a semicolon: 'The concert was sold out.' 'Fans queued for hours.'