PassFrame tuition

Synonyms & Antonyms

Year 5 Accelerated — Mark Scheme — Lesson Worksheet & Homework (tutor copy)

Lesson Worksheet — Answers

Easy / Standard

1. e.g. large / huge / enormous

2. e.g. unhappy / miserable / gloomy

3. e.g. quick / rapid / speedy

4. B — cold

5. down

6. end / finish

7. e.g. tiny / little

8. A, C and E — sad, unhappy and miserable are antonyms for happy

9. e.g. smart / bright / intelligent

10. B — quiet

11. e.g. afraid / frightened

12. B — dry

13. e.g. exhausted / weary / sleepy

14. B — difficult

15. e.g. kind / pleasant / lovely

Standard

1. e.g. roared / bellowed / thundered

2. e.g. trudged / trailed / dragged himself along

3. 'Ancient' usually describes something extremely old in age (e.g. an ancient ruin); 'archaic' usually describes something old-fashioned or no longer used, especially language or customs

4. B — scarce

5. 'Frugal' is positive, suggesting sensible, careful spending; 'miserly' is negative, suggesting someone is mean or unwilling to spend even when they should

6. e.g. nibbled / picked at

7. e.g. gazed / admired / marvelled at

8. B, C and E — 'infamous' means well-known for something bad or shocking; it carries a strongly negative connotation; it is related to 'famous' but not simply positive

9. B — verbose

10. B — elated

11. 'Inquisitive' is positive, suggesting healthy curiosity or eagerness to learn; 'nosy' is negative, suggesting unwelcome prying into others' business

12. e.g. demolished / shattered / obliterated

13. B — careless

14. 'Gaunt' carries a stronger, more negative connotation, suggesting thinness caused by illness, hunger or suffering, whereas 'thin' is neutral

15. e.g. fearless / daring / audacious

Standard / Hard

1. 'Slim' has a positive connotation (attractively thin); 'skinny' often has a negative connotation (too thin)

2. 'Confident' is positive (sure of oneself); 'arrogant' is negative (overly proud, looking down on others)

6. irresponsible

7. A — tiptoed

11. e.g. careful / thorough / precise

12. 'Curious' is positive (eager to learn); 'nosy' is negative (prying into others' business)

3. B — invisible

4. illegible

5. irregular

8. B — marched

9. B, C and E — 'notorious' means well-known for something bad or shocking; it carries a negative connotation; it is related to 'famous' but usually implies wrongdoing

10. pessimistic

13. inaudible

14. C — snapped

15. because synonyms can carry different connotations, tones or shades of meaning, so context must guide the choice

Homework — Answers

Easy / Standard

1. e.g. great / excellent / wonderful

2. e.g. terrible / awful / poor

3. e.g. silent / hushed

4. B — hot

5. right

6. shut / closed

7. e.g. big / huge / vast

8. A, C and E — happy, glad and cheerful are antonyms for sad

9. e.g. bright / smart

10. B — slow

11. e.g. glad / cheerful / joyful

12. B — wet

13. e.g. cross / annoyed / mad

14. B — easy

15. e.g. caring / gentle / friendly

Standard

1. e.g. hissed / breathed

2. e.g. fled / bolted / dashed

3. 'Old-fashioned' usually describes something mildly outdated, often in a quaint or charming way; 'archaic' usually describes something no longer used at all, especially language or customs, and can sound more formal or extreme

4. B — scarce

5. 'Thrifty' is positive, suggesting sensible, careful spending; 'tight-fisted' is negative, suggesting someone is mean or unwilling to spend even when they should

6. e.g. gulped / guzzled

7. e.g. eyed / scrutinised / studied

8. B, C and E — 'notorious' means well-known for something bad or shocking; it carries a negative connotation; it is related to 'well-known' but usually implies wrongdoing

9. B — insufficient

10. B — heartbroken

11. 'Confident' is positive, suggesting a healthy belief in your own abilities; 'cocky' is negative, suggesting arrogance or overconfidence that annoys others

12. e.g. shattered / smashed / demolished

13. B — lazy

14. 'Scrawny' carries a stronger, more negative connotation, suggesting unattractive or unhealthy thinness, whereas 'thin' is neutral

15. e.g. petrified / paralysed with fear

Standard / Advanced

1. 'Unique' is often positive or neutral (one of a kind); 'strange' often carries a negative connotation (odd, unsettling)

2. immature

3. impossible

4. B — glared

5. 'Determined' is positive (shows admirable persistence); 'obstinate' is negative (unreasonably inflexible)

6. thrilled (the strongest match for the excitement of winning)

7. e.g. 'The view from the mountain was breathtaking.'

8. A — aroma

9. B — stench

10. impermanent (or the non-prefixed antonym: temporary)

11. e.g. 'The dog was big. The house was also huge/enormous.'

12. A, C and E — 'assertive' is positive, confidently stating your views; 'bossy' is negative, controlling others unfairly; the two words describe similar behaviour but carry different connotations

13. B — devoured

14. e.g. 'happy/unhappy' — the prefix 'un-' reverses the meaning of the root word, forming an antonym without needing a completely different word

15. enormous — it emphasises the size and excitement of the crowd more dramatically than 'large' or 'sizeable'