For tutor use. Accept any well-reasoned answer supported by evidence from the extract, even if it differs from the wording below.

Lesson Worksheet — Answers

1. Words for clouds, written in a notebook.

2. A galloping horse.

3. “pages soft from being turned so many times.”

4. “What's the point of writing about clouds? They just float away and disappear.”

5. That he spoke in a mocking, unkind way.

6. False — he didn't have an answer that day.

7. Accept reasoned answers, e.g. she wanted him to understand that writing things down can preserve beautiful, fleeting moments.

8. His grandmother.

9. She meant that because beautiful things don't last, it's especially worth recording them before they're gone.

10. That he felt confident and at peace with his answer.

11. Accept reasoned answers, e.g. clouds are naturally fleeting, which fits the poem's message about appreciating things that don't last.

12. Accept a reasoned personal opinion either way.

Homework Worksheet — Answers

1. Lying flat on his back in the school field.

2. Wispy white threads of hair on a horse's mane.

3. “Some of the other children laughed when they saw him staring up at the sky…”

4. “his grandmother found him curled up on the sofa, flicking through his notebook with a troubled frown.”

5. That Theo was worried or upset.

6. Correct order: Marcus laughs at Theo → Theo writes about the horse-shaped cloud → Theo's grandmother speaks to him → Theo returns to the field the next day.

7. Accept reasoned answers, e.g. it shows how much Theo valued and used the notebook, making his hobby feel meaningful.

8. That they are pointless because they float away and disappear.

9. Accept reasoned answers, e.g. he hadn't thought about it that way before, or was too upset by the teasing.

10. That he now understood and accepted why his hobby mattered.

11. “sneered.”

12. Accept any reasoned, descriptive answer.
