Market Day

Year 4 — 11+ Mark Scheme (PassFrame Tuition)

Comprehension · Mark Scheme

For tutor use. Accept any well-reasoned answer supported by evidence from the extract, even if it differs from the wording below.

Lesson Worksheet — Answers

1. Grey and still.

2. Accept any 2 of: apples, flowers, bread, milk, peach.

3. “children dart from stall to stall with coins held tight, not spent at all.”

4. “I buy a peach, as soft as silk.”

5. That the stall arrived noisily, with a loud banging sound.

6. False — it is described as merry.

7. Accept reasoned answers, e.g. to show how the market transforms the square from empty to lively and back again.

8. A fiddler and a juggler.

9. Accept reasoned answers describing the square filling with stalls and people in the morning, and emptying again by dusk.

10. That market day happens regularly, as part of the town's routine.

11. Accept reasoned answers, e.g. to show the contrast between the lively day and the quiet that follows.

12. Accept a reasoned opinion with evidence from the poem.

Homework Worksheet — Answers

1. A cart, a crate, and a canvas sheet.

2. Pours his milk.

3. “bread still warm and steaming through.”

4. “grey once more” / “comes round once more.”

5. That the children moved quickly and energetically between stalls.

6. Correct order: stalls are set up → the fiddler plays music → the poet buys a peach → the square falls quiet again.

7. Accept reasoned answers, e.g. to make the market feel lively and realistic, as if readers can hear the sellers calling out.

8. Morning (around nine o'clock).

9. Accept reasoned answers, e.g. because the square looks plain and ordinary, yet becomes full of life and happiness.

10. That market day is a temporary burst of life in an otherwise quiet place.

11. “cheer.”

12. Accept any reasoned, descriptive personal answer.
