Lesson Worksheet — Answers

1. They turn and fall from the branches.

2. Accept any 2 of: swallows, squirrel, hedgehogs.

3. "The air grows sharp, the mornings grey."

4. "like golden coins from branches tall."

5. That the squirrel is storing and guarding his acorns carefully.

6. False — it describes autumn arriving.

7. Accept reasoned answers, e.g. it suggests the swallows are gathering closely together before flying off as a group.

8. Gathers in the grain, likely because the harvest season has arrived.

9. Accept reasoned answers, e.g. that the poet feels hopeful or finds autumn beautiful despite summer ending.

10. That the poet sees the harvest moon as warm, guiding and comforting, like a lantern.

11. Accept reasoned answers, e.g. to leave readers with a positive, hopeful feeling about the changing season.

12. Accept a reasoned opinion with evidence from the poem.

Homework Worksheet — Answers

1. A crunching, rustling sound.

2. Hides them away as a store.

3. "and breath hangs white and drifts away."

4. "grain" / "rain."

5. That the swallows are about to migrate or travel elsewhere.

6. Correct order: leaves begin to fall → the harvest moon rises → farmers gather in the grain → hedgehogs curl up to sleep (accept reasoned ordering based on verse sequence).

7. Accept reasoned answers, e.g. russet is the reddish-brown colour of autumn leaves, linking sound and colour imagery.

8. Curl in leafy beds and tuck their noses in to sleep.

9. Accept reasoned answers, e.g. to show how carefully and thoroughly the squirrel prepares for winter.

10. That autumn, though it means summer ending, still has its own beauty.

11. "hoarded."

12. Accept any reasoned, descriptive personal answer.
