The Kite

Year 4 — 11+ Homework Worksheet (PassFrame Tuition)

Comprehension | Poetry

Extract (poem) — read it carefully before answering

I ran along the windy hill, my kite behind me, climbing still,
a scrap of red against the blue,
tugging as if it wanted to.

It dipped and soared, it spun and dived,
as if some creature, wild, alive,
was straining hard against the string,
determined to be free, to spring.

Then suddenly a gust came by and snatched my kite clean from the sky —
it tumbled, caught upon a tree,
and dangled where I couldn't see.

I climbed the trunk with scraped-up knees,
and reached up through the rustling leaves,
and freed my kite, now torn a bit,
but mine again — I rescued it!

We flew once more, though not as high,
my kite and I against the sky,
a little torn, but just as bright,
still dancing there in fading light.

Questions

25 min · 12 questions

1. Where was the poet running at the start of the poem?

2. What caused the kite to be pulled from the sky?

3. Underline the line that tells you the poet hurt their knees.

4. Underline the line that shows the kite flew lower after being rescued.

5. What does “dangled” suggest about how the kite hung from the tree?

6. Put these events in order: the kite gets caught in a tree / the poet climbs the tree / the poet flies the kite again / a gust of wind snatches the kite.

7. Why might the poet have described the kite as “tugging as if it wanted to” fly higher?

8. What word in the final verse shows the kite was damaged?

9. Why do you think the poet felt it was important to rescue the kite rather than leave it?

10. What does the final line, “still dancing there in fading light”, suggest about the mood at the end of the poem?

11. Find and copy a word from the poem that means “flew smoothly and high”.

12. Write one or two sentences describing a time you worked hard to get something back that you had lost.
