The Kite

Year 4 — 11+ Lesson Worksheet (PassFrame Tuition)

Comprehension | Poetry

Extract (poem) — read it carefully before answering

I ran along the windy hill, my kite behind me, climbing still,
a scrap of red against the blue, tugging as if it wanted to.

It dipped and soared, it spun and dived, as if some creature, wild, alive, was straining hard against the string, determined to be free, to spring.

Then suddenly a gust came by and snatched my kite clean from the sky — it tumbled, caught upon a tree, and dangled where I couldn't see.

I climbed the trunk with scraped-up knees, and reached up through the rustling leaves, and freed my kite, now torn a bit, but mine again — I rescued it!

We flew once more, though not as high, my kite and I against the sky, a little torn, but just as bright, still dancing there in fading light.
