The Ant and the Butterfly

Year 4 — 11+ Mark Scheme (PassFrame Tuition)

Comprehension · Mark Scheme

For tutor use. Accept any well-reasoned answer supported by evidence from the extract, even if it differs from the wording below.

Lesson Worksheet — Answers

1. Drifting from flower to flower, admiring her own reflection in the dewdrops.

2. Crumbs and seeds.

3. "The sun is shining and summer will last forever!"

4. "scattering leaves like confetti."

5. That she was walking slowly and with effort, weighed down.

6. True.

7. Accept reasoned answers, e.g. her wings weren't built to survive the cold, unlike an ant's body/shelter.

8. A crumb of bread and a seed from her own winter store.

9. Accept reasoned answers, e.g. it is good to prepare for the future rather than only enjoy the present; kindness matters even to those who mocked you.

10. Accept reasoned answers, e.g. to contrast a hard worker with a carefree one in a way readers can easily picture.

11. Accept reasoned answers with evidence, e.g. ashamed or humbled — she "lowered her eyes."

12. Accept a reasoned opinion either way.

Homework Worksheet — Answers

1. Beneath the old oak tree.

2. Summer.

3. "trudging onward with a seed twice her size balanced on her back."

4. Accept any 2 of: "admiring her own reflection"; "laughed"; "laughed harder."

5. That she moved slowly and without effort, carelessly.

6. Correct order: Iris laughs at Moss → a bitter wind sweeps through the meadow → Iris shivers under a leaf → Moss brings Iris food.

7. Accept reasoned answers, e.g. moss and iris flowers both grow outdoors and suit each creature's nature/season.

8. They became useless against the cold.

9. That she is kind and forgiving, even to someone who mocked her.

10. "vain" or "proud" (accept any correct opposite of generous from the text's context, with reasoning).

11. Accept reasoned answers, e.g. she didn't want to embarrass Iris or rub it in.

12. Accept any sensible one-sentence moral, e.g. "Kindness and preparation matter more than carefree days."
