Lesson Worksheet — Answers

1. One of the cubs walked on two legs and was really a human boy.

2. Kiro, the pack leader — the name means 'the one who came from the river.'

3. "He knew the forest the way other children knew their own bedrooms."

4. "her voice low as distant thunder."

5. That they saw his hands as awkward and not useful, unlike a wolf's paws.

6. False.

7. Accept reasoned answers, e.g. a natural human instinct to use tools was beginning to emerge in him.

8. Reading danger in the stillness of birds, hearing a deer's heartbeat from far away, and knowing every part of the forest.

9. Accept reasoned answers, e.g. that one day he will have to return to human life/his origins.

10. That Deklan may be destined to leave the pack and live among humans.

11. Accept reasoned answers, e.g. to show she is wise and understands more about his future than he does.

12. Accept a reasoned opinion either way, with evidence from the text.

Homework Worksheet — Answers

1. The Sundabar forest.

2. It fell in thin silver needles rather than broad beams.

3. "His legs had grown too long for four-legged running."

4. "clumsy, useless things, the other cubs teased."

5. That they played roughly and without a care, full of energy.

6. Correct order: Deklan is given his name → Deklan's hands begin shaping sticks → Kiro speaks to Deklan → Deklan dreams of a village.

7. Accept reasoned answers, e.g. it shows how completely familiar and safe the forest feels to him.

8. A village he had never seen — it hints that his human instincts/future are beginning to call him.

9. Accept reasoned answers, e.g. because he is growing and changing in ways the forest can't accommodate forever.

10. That he feels embarrassed or unsure about this part of himself.

11. "he could read danger in the stillness of birds and hear a deer's heartbeat from fifty paces."

12. Accept any reasoned prediction with evidence from the text.
