The Gloomwood Beast

Year 5 — 11+ Mark Scheme (PassFrame Tuition)

Comprehension · Mark Scheme

For tutor use. Accept any well-reasoned answer supported by evidence from the extract, even if it differs from the wording below.

Lesson Worksheet — Answers

1. The old woodcutter.

2. A blunted blade (sword).

3. “he crossed the Whistling Glen, unafraid.”

4. Accept any 3 of: creepling, flimmer, wurbling, bramblecrows, griplefangs, brindlewisps, thrundering, scalesmoke.

5. Accept reasoned inference, e.g. sharp, dangerous teeth or claws (“grip” + “fangs”).

6. False — Finn defeats the Beast.

7. Accept reasoned answers, e.g. invented words make the Beast feel stranger and more otherworldly than real words could.

8. “Bravest child.”

9. Accept a reasoned retelling, e.g. the Beast roars and attacks, but Finn stands his ground and strikes it down with one blow.

10. That peace and relief have returned after the danger has passed.

11. Accept reasoned answers, e.g. it leaves the reader with a warm, hopeful feeling rather than ending on violence.

12. Accept any invented word with a sensible made-up meaning.

Homework Worksheet — Answers

1. Dusk (twilight).

2. A blunted blade.

3. “The Beast arose with a thrundering roar.”

4. “whose eyes burn ember-coal-ash-red.”

5. Accept reasoned inference, e.g. wispy, tangled plants or mist that cling to things (“brindle” + “wisps”).

6. Correct order: the woodcutter warns Finn → Finn crosses the Whistling Glen → Finn strikes the Beast → sunlight streams through Gloomwood.

7. Accept reasoned answers, e.g. real words couldn’t capture how strange and frightening the Beast was.

8. The woodcutter’s warning that its “griplefangs will never sleep” implies it had been a constant threat.

9. It moves from dark, tense and frightening to bright, peaceful and joyful.

10. Accept reasoned inference, e.g. smoke mixed with the glint of scales — a smoky, scaly haze around the Beast.

11. “thrundering.”

12. Accept any reasoned two-line verse using at least one invented word.
